

Heavier Taxes On Oil Opposed As Dangerous

derelict in my duty if I did not alert the people of this state to what is happening to education and other services they have requested of their government.

"I have been called a Paul Revere and I don't mind that a bit because I see it as my function to sound the alarm before it is too late. The hour has come for friends of education and other programs to speak out."

Other speakers were David Smith, Richard Boone, and Dr. P. O. Richter, OSU specialists. Assisting with the tour, designed to add knowledge of important aspects of entomology, were J. Capizzi, Ed Greene, R. W. Every, P. O. Richter and Burton Hutton. The tour opened with a banquet in the Memorial Union on the campus.

The bill was seen as an incentive to railroads to maintain more cars. The Interstate Commerce Commission would be allowed to take the level of freight car ownership into consideration in determining the rate a railroad would pay for use of cars owned by other railroads.

PALM BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Comedian Joe E. Lewis visited Joseph P. Kennedy Tuesday and the President's father laughed heartily at one quip.

"I'm patriotic and I walked 50 miles today," Lewis said. "I'm beginning to wonder if your son has an interest in a shoe company."

"Your basic steamboat idea is good, Mr. Fulton, but there are still a few bugs to iron out!"

LONDON (UPI)—Britain's 50,000 family doctors and dentists are to get a raise in pay, Prime Minister Harold Macmillan told Parliament Monday.

Macmillan said the raise will be about 14 per cent under the national health scheme.
