

TERRACE TOP — This smartly-styled Westinghouse electric range with a distinctive two-level platform will be part of the display of Kirkpatrick's Electric at the Cooking School. The higher, rear level is used for long-time cooking operations, and the lower front level for foods that require stirring or mixing.

Klamath 4-H Clubs Meet

THE LEATHERETTES

Mrs. M. A. Bixler of Keno has started a 4-H Club in leathercraft. The name of the club is Leatherettes. The officers of the club are:

Rex Trullinger, president; Doug Crandall, vice president; Judy Bixler, secretary - treasurer; Jay Bixler, news reporter; Stephen Powell, song leader; Sandy Crandall, game leader.

There are 15 girls and boys in our club.

Jay Bixler,
News Reporter.

VAGUEROS HORSE CLUB

Officers elected at the December meeting were Linda Parisotto, president; Lee Holliday, vice president; Diane Colby, secretary; Dave Howard, news reporter; and Karen Rice, horse wrangler. New members in the club are Tom and Evelyn Zarosinski, Scott Johnston, Lonnie McGheley and June Klinger.

Monte Foreman is coming to Klamath County Fairgrounds on May 3 and 4. Lee Holliday and Karen Rice are going to donate a copy of Mr. Foreman's book, "Horse Handling Science," to the city library in Klamath Falls.

The Vagueros Horse Club has a big year planned for 1963.

Welcome to a new horse club led by Mr. Ralph Crawford from Hildebrand!

Dave Howard,
News Reporter.

EAGER BEATERS

The organizational meeting of the Kookie Cookie Cookers was held on a Thursday. The members of the club all voted to change our club's name to "Eager Beaters." Officers were elected as follows: Genie Matlock, president; Betty Landon, vice president; Lisa Kent, secretary; Linda Kent, news reporter.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Eldon Kent, then the meeting was adjourned by the new president. New members present were Laura Schroeder and Connie Shelby.

A meeting of the Eager Beaters was held Dec. 6 at the home of Mrs. Wayne Yancey. The books for our club were passed out. The 4-H goals were discussed. The meeting was adjourned.

The members went into the kitchen and discussed how to make potato soup. We each gave a demonstration. The potato soup was brought home by Mrs. Virginia Kent.

Cookies and milk were served by Beverly Yancey.

Linda Kent,

SPEEDY WEEDERS

GARDEN CLUB

The first organization meeting of the Speedy Weeders was held March 11 at the leader's home. Members discussed the election. We elected to office the following people: Tim Roberts, president; Lisa Kent, vice president; Linda Kent, news reporter; Joan Roberts, secretary; Carol Struve, song leader and Diana game leader. We decided not to bring money to each meeting. After the meeting our leader, Mrs. Beverly Roberts, served refreshments.
