MONEY WINNER — Jerry Barber tips his cap to the crowds around the 18th green of the Cape Baar Country Club after sinking his last putt to win the Azalea Open Golf Tournament Sunday at Wilmington, N.C. Barber had a 14 under par 274 and took $3,900 in prize money. — UPI Telephoto

Barber Captures 3rd Azalea Open

WILMINGTON, N.C. (UPI)—Affable Jerry Barber had a feeling he would win his third Azalea Open golf tournament, but a news photographer almost spoiled things for him.

"It happened on the 17th hole," said a happy Barber, who strung together five birdies on the back nine Sunday to win the tournament going away with a 14-under-par 274.

At this juncture, the Los Angeles pro already had a four-stroke lead.

"But one bad shot could have made it a new ball game," he said. "Right in the middle of my swing I heard the camera click. I flinched.

"Luckily the ball went straight. But it could have wound up in a clump of trees or in a creek and I would have been in trouble.

"He could have blown me right out of the picture."

Champ Buried At Home

SPRINGFIELD, Ohio (UPI) — Mourners overflowed the Baptist Church of Davey Moore's boyhood Saturday as the good little guy of boxing was laid to rest.

"My message is to comfort the family," Bishop Carl Smith said in the eulogy, "for God will not forget them."

Outside the friends of long ago and the plain curious stood along the street or waited in cars parked half-a-mile along the streets in all directions.

The minister made no reference to boxing and to demands to abolish the sport that arose in the wake of Moore's fatal injur in a Los Angeles boxing match March 21.

There were audible sobs as the bishop told the congregation to weep for Moore but reminded them of the Biblical promise that the tears of those who believe in God would not be in vain.

The widow, Geraldine, and her five fatherless children, sobbed throughout the service. She cried freely as the minister said "Ashes to ashes and dust to dust" in the fern-cliffed cemetery in the countryside where Davey played as a boy.

"I am not concerned with heaping praise on the deceased because the press has been very generous," Bishop Smith said in his brief remarks.

Down in front of the pulpit, Dave's body was in a pale pink bronze casket resting at about the exact spot where Moore usually stood when he addressed the congregation.

Red and white carnations were on top of the former feather-weight champion's casket. At the foot was a spray of white lillies, sent by Mrs. Benny Paret who could share the family's sympathy because her husband had died from boxing injuries last year.

The Rev. W. E. Richardson, pastor of the Mount Zion Baptist Church where the services were held, described Moore as a "good man."

It was Moore's habit, the minister recalled, to walk down the church's long aisle and give a report of what he had been doing and to make a few inspirational remarks on his visits home.

Southern Cal Edges Stanford

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—USC scored a run in the first inning on a double steal and then hung on to edge Stanford, 1-0, in a California Intercollegiate Baseball Association (CIBA) game Saturday at Bovard Field.

Billy Maxwell, Doug Ford, Larry Beck, Jack Rule and Bruce Crampton finished in a five-way tie for second place at 279, five strokes behind the diminutive Californian.

Maxwell, Ford and Beck were tied with Barber after the front nine, but the Californian went on a birdie spree on the backside that buried the field.

Barber, at 5-7 and 137 pounds one of the smallest pros in the tournament, went out in regulation strokes with one birdie and one bogie. But on the back nine he collected birdies on the 11th, 13th, 14th, 15th and 18th.

"I don't know how to explain it," Barber said, "but I never felt like I was going to lose. I just never felt it."

He said he had the same feeling when he won his last tournament, the 1961 PGA championship.

The victory made Barber the only pro to win the Azalea three times. He picked up other victories here in 1953 and 1961.

In addition to first prize money of $2,800, Barber picked up a $100 bonus for tying Dow Finsterwald for the lowest round of the day, and another $1,000 for being among the second and third round leaders.

Finsterwald finished back in the pack at 283.

Tie for seventh place were Jerry Steelsmith and Gene Littler at 280 followed one stroke back by Dave Marr, Bill Dunk and Lionel Hebert.

PCL Camp Briefs

DELAND, Fla. (UPI)— Slumping Seattle regained its batting eye and ripped Portland 11-3 Sunday.

Billy Harrell had a triple, two singles and four runs batted in for the Rainiers, who slugged a dozen hits off two Beaver hurlers.

Billy Spanswick went seven innings and Darrell Martin the rest for the Rainiers as Portland managed only six hits. One was a homer by pitcher Rene Monteagudo.

BARSTOW, Fla. (UPI)—Denver scored four unearned runs in the ninth to shade San Diego 5-4 in a Pacific Coast League exhibition battle Sunday.

Two errors, two walks and two hits spelled doom for the Padres.

San Diego outhit Denver 13-7, but left 12 runners on the baselaths. The Padres' Art Shamsky continued his heavy hitting with a homer. Denver's Ed Olackaby also poled a fourmaster.

CASA GRANDE, Ariz. (UPI)—Jacksonville of the International league outhit Tacoma 16-11 and outscored them 8-7 in a wild contest here Sunday.

Tacoma rosted Salt Lake today.

The Giants scored three runs in the ninth to make it close Sunday as Jimmy Hart's triple did most of the damage.

Paul Doyle and Danny Rivas gave up most of the runs, but Ron Herbel started and was stuck for the loss.

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. (UPI)—Albuquerque and Spokane each only got four hits, but the New Mexico nine pulled out a 4-0 decision anyway Sunday.

Spokane pitcher Thad Tillotson allowed all the runs in the third.

MESA, Ariz. (UPI)—An uprising in the 10th by El Paso cost Salt Lake City its second straight loss of the Cactus League season Sunday in a 6-4 thriller.

Lefty Wayne Carlender pitched hitless ball in a sparkling three-inning stint for the Bees and Salt Lake's Hal Jones whacked a two-run homer.

Ol' Case Embarks On 54th Campaign With Hopes Of Improving Met Club

By MURRAY OLDERMAN

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (NEA)—"And in center field," quoth Casey Stengel, the bard of the New York Mets, "we got (Eli) Chacon, which just came in from Venezuela. And that proves he can cover a lot of ground . . . (pause) . . . some of it in the air."

This was Ol' Case embarking on his 54th year of spring training as player, coach, manager and hanker and lending his own brand of spice to a roster.

When he loped, hunched with age, past the St. Louis Cardinal dugout onto Al Lang Field in St. Petersburg, titters of fondness ran through the stands. It was the kind of an audience that might have been there when Casey broke in with Kankakee in 1920.

Only in the privacy of a clubhouse, you wouldn't call Stengel lovable. He can be downright crusty.

"I'm paid to manage," he said testily, "though people don't know it. I'm generally interviewed every hour. When I get through here I got four or five waiting to talk to me."

Maybe the role of character and buffoon to cover up the shortcomings of the Mets is beginning to pall.

When he discusses the club fur an audience, there are no knowing winks or entertaining double talk which brought Stengelese into the baseball lexicon. The language remains singularly descriptive.

"Coleman stops passed balls," he reflected. "He can run like blazes. My other catcher is Canzoneri, with a busted hand."

The other catcher is really Chris Cannizzaro. Coleman is Clarence or Choo Choo.

"We don't know how many games (Gil) Hodges on first can give us," he continued. "He plays right-handed but looks like he's left-handed.

"Neal (Charley) is the shortstop.

"We got three pitchers. (Roger) Craig, is very good against Los Angeles, Cincinnati and San Francisco. They can't steal bases on him. On a 1-2-3 club he's amazin.' He would be a relief pitcher because he can go in and get 'em in the eighth or ninth inning.

"Now (Alvin) Jackson — when you can win four shutouts on this ball club, you're a big leaguer. (Jay) Hook pitches like he should win 20 games.

"It's still not a staff."

Stengel turns as nimble as a mountain goat only when the conversation is steered into touchy channels, like Gene Woodling being fired for interceding in a salary argument.

"If I was in a pennant race and needed a man to hit, he could do it," was the way he answered that one.

Ask if there's any similarity between managing the Mets and the bedraggled Boston Braves of the 1930s (who finished seventh four years in a row) and Casey rambles:

"I have coaches to teach 'em one move. They don't let 'em get off the field until they've completed everything they have to learn. (Solly) Hemus and (Cookie) Lavagetto—they might fit somebody's shoe.

"These players got to know each other. My problem is blending them together."

"You better buy binoculars," Stengel told the team broadcasters at the start of training. "We are going to do a lot of running this year. That's the only way you'll be able to catch us."

See what he means?

Youngsters Roll Scores For ABC Mail Tourney

The fall term of Junior Bowling leagues came to a close last week at Lucky Lanes, but it was not obvious as the youngsters took to the lanes in the 18th Annual Mailographic Team Handicap Tournament. Every lane was filled with juniors, bantams and seniors competing for national honors in this American Junior Bowling Congress Tournament. Local scores are mailed in to the national headquarters of the congress for tabulation and comparison.

In the Bantam Boys division at Lucky Lanes, Zilch's Big Monsters rolled a two-game team total of 1468 to lead the other house teams. In second place: Economy Cash Grocery, 1458 and third: Spud Celler, 1433. Fourth went to the Alley Rippers with a 1407. In fifth place, the Challengers placed with 1404. Ward's Masoner Contracting was sixth with 1362 followed by the Battlers with 1348 and Lewis's Lads with 1317.

The best individual effort by a bantam boy was Mike Cunningham's 176 game and 316 series for two games. Henry Robbins turned in a 266 series and Bobby Redfield a 263. Russel Foster had the high game with his 182.

Only four bantam girls teams competed. The best of these were the Pin Busters with a 1452 total. They were followed by the Wobblers, 1328; and the Lucky Five with 1286. The two highest series and highest games were scored by Pin Busters; Dixie Hager turned in high game and high series with a 138 game and a 257 series. Tonja Adreon, also a Pin Buster, had a 254 and Pamela White, who anchored the same team, hit for a 136 in her first game.

The Strikers led the four entries in the Junior Girls division with a 2453. Lynn Fletcher led the way for the Strikers with a 192 game and a 478 series (three-game totals). The 5 Foulers fired 2390 for second place with the 5 Bowler-etts posting a 2352 and the Lucky Strikes a 2173.

The junior boys displayed little originality in their team titles but did not let this affect their bowling. Team No. 1 finished in that position—first — with 2415. Team No. 3 finished second with 2228 and Team No. 2 turned in a 2201 total. Big gun for the Junior Boys was Jeff Davis with a 204 game and 478 series.

The K Falls Hot Shots captured the top spot among the Senior Boys at Lucky Lanes with a 2839 total. In second place the Lucky Make Ups were paced by Lee Ross, who turned in a 221 game and 564 series. Mike Rainwater also had a 221 game for the Lucky Make Ups. Third place in the Senior Boys division went to the Senior Boys who had 2748. And trailing the group was S. R. Crawley Welders with 2722.

Two teams of trios were seeking national honors with 1619, for S. R. Crawley Welders; and 1546 for the Lefty's Three. Dennis Graham, a 164 averager, turned in a 627 scratch with games of 223, 199 and 205 in this event. (This was the top individual score in all the events.)

Giants Lose 1-Run Pair To Indians

SANTA BARBARA, Calif. (UPI)—It was a lost weekend for the San Francisco Giants who dropped a pair of one-run battles to Cleveland.

The Giants tried to snap their six-game losing streak here today against the Indians.

Four Giant errors handed Sunday's decision to the Tribe, who prevailed 7-6, at San Diego.

The game had hardly got underway when Don Larsen was undone by three errors and Willie Kirkland's double. Chuck Hiller committed two of the bobbles and Jose Pagan one.

Jack Fisher took over for Larsen in the fourth with the score 5-3 Cleveland. Fisher was tough although he gave up a two-run homer to Fred Whitfield that eventually decided it.

For San Francisco, Orlando Cepeda hit for the distance with Willie Mays aboard in the fourth.

Felipe Alou's two-run single sparked a three run blast in the ninth for San Francisco, but a diving grab of Tom Haller's hard smash by Cleveland second baseman Mike de La Hoz quenched Giant hopes.

Saturday night's game found brother battling brother.

Jim Perry of Cleveland outlasted baby brother Gaylord of the Giants in a 5-4 contest. Both men went all the way.

Willie McCovey hit two more homers to run his spring total to 10, while Tom Haller also hit for the distance.

The double defeat left San Francisco's record at a miserable 6-16. The two weekend games at San Diego drew better than 13,600 fans.

Meanwhile, the injured Billy Hoeft said that he expects to be throwing within a week.

"I've been going through all the motions," said the southpaw tosser. "No problems. I think I'll be cranking up by Sunday."

It was the brightest report on Hoeft since he injured his shoulder in a fall at Casa Grande.

What with Mike McCormick gone, only John Pregenzer making it from the rookie crop, and the holdovers getting bombarded—the Giants need the veteran lefty back in a hurry.

ABC Meet Shift Noted

BUFFALO, N.Y. (UPI) — Big "E" of Buffalo, N.Y., climbed to 10th place in the classic team division of the American Bowling Congress tournament Sunday night.

Led by Sam Borrasca's 663, the Buffalo bowlers added 3002 to the 2961 series rolled Saturday and wound up with 5963. Still leading the division is United Van Lines of St. Louis with 6210.

In minor events Sunday, Don Whelan of Buffalo who has been bowling seriously only four years, took first in the classic singles with 730. He replaced Ed Thomas of Logan, Ohio, who dropped to second with 720.

Whelan also took second in the classic all-events with 1979 for nine games. Still leading is Thurman Gibson of Detroit with 1991.

John Fonagy Jr., who rolled with Whelan on the big "E" team, placed fifth in the classic singles with 697.

Standings in the regular team division remained unchanged Sunday.
