

PARADISE COFFEE CAKE

Coffee Cake Rich With Fruit

It's a happy morning when the spicy aroma of fresh, hot pear coffee cake beckons to early birds and breakfast skippers alike. This delightful butter coffee cake brings even the Johnny - comely to the table on time, for it features canned pears in a cinnamon crisp topping. The easy beaten butter is rich with all the flavor so characteristic of a yeast bread.

Pacific Coast Canned Pears perform wonders as that "important" ingredient in many recipes. Their versatility is amazing, for with their delightful fragrance and delicate appearance, they fit into any course in a meal. Desserts, salads and meat accompaniments take on a special glow when the fruit they feature is canned pears. Easiest to use, canned pears are often best, and canned pears certainly fit easily into the scheme of meal planning.

The rich levulose sugars in pears give them high energy values, and at the same time, canned pears are relatively low in calories. For a quick mid-day snack, nothing could be as simple as opening a can of pears. And yet, few snacks could be as healthy or satisfying.

A WELCOME FRUIT TREAT — Slices of "Plum Dutch Cake," studded with canned purple plums, pineapple chunks and walnuts, are served with a marble sauce for a delectable dessert.

PLUM DUTCH CAKE IS COLORFUL DESSERT

For "plum-good" eating, "Plum Dutch Cake" is hard to beat. It's an upside-down cake that is guaranteed not to turn the kitchen or the cook topsideways. Packaged cake mix simplifies the preparation. And handsome canned purple plums, pineapple chunks and walnuts are as easy to add to the mixture as they are certain to make this dessert a success with party guests and family alike. Syrups from the fruits blended with miniature marshmallows give a marbled effect to the sauce served over the cake.

PLUM DUTCH CAKE
1 can (1 lb. 15 oz.) purple plums served in extra heavy syrup
1 can (13 1/2 oz.) pineapple chunks
1 cup butter or margarine
1 cup light brown sugar, packed

1/2 teaspoon grated lemon rind
1 package (1 lb. 3 oz.) yellow cake mix
2 eggs
1 cup plus 2 tablespoons water
1/2 teaspoon nutmeg or mace
Marbled Sauce or whipped cream

MARBLED SAUCE
2 tablespoons sugar
2 cups syrup from plums and pineapple
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1/2 cup miniature marshmallows

Cut plums in half, pit and drain on paper towels, reserving syrup. Drain pineapple, reserving syrup. Melt butter in 13 x 9 x 2-inch baking pan. Sprinkle brown sugar with Marbled Sauce or whipped cream. Arrange cream, fruit and nuts evenly over sugar. Prepare cake mix as package directs, using eggs, water and nut-blend in syrup from fruit. Cook to meg. Pour cake batter over fruit. Bake in 350-degree (moderate) oven about 30 to 40 minutes, until cake springs back lightly from touch. Cool 15 minutes, then invert on serving platter. Serve. Makes 10 to 12 servings.

BUNNY BON BONNS

These funny bunnies made of foil are easy to make for Easter treat. You can form the rabbit-shaped cups from aluminum foil.

These Bunnies Have No Fur

Pudge bunny bon bonns create as much family fun for an Easter project as coloring eggs. Almost every child anticipates a chocolate rabbit in his Easter basket. He will enjoy it doubly if he makes one himself — with your help, of course.

Bunny bon bonns are formed by spooning a simple-to-make fudge mixture into bunny-shaped foil cups.

Children will love to make them! While they are hard to work on the foil shapes, you can prepare very easy, but delicious, fudge recipes in buttered bowls and chocolate flavors.

A pattern for the bunny shape may be copied in a larger version from the sketch in the accompanying photo. Have a year-old child trace the bunny pattern on a piece of lightweight cardboard. Cutout as many as you wish.

For each bunny, you will need two four-inch squares of heavy duty aluminum foil. The cardboard figure is slipped between the dull sides of foil squares. All edges of the foil are turned up to outline the cardboard and form the sides of the bunny-shaped foil cup. Turn excess foil down, toward inside of the foil cup, to form a smooth, one-half-inch-high rim.

Once a child discovers how easily the foil molds may be made, he will work hard at many more.

After these Easter treats, you'll want to use the following recipes for short-cut fudge frequently.
