

KUHS Students Dance At Annual Girls League Spring Formal Ball

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen
Herald and News
Sunday, April 7, 1963

Dance-A-Lot Club, one of the club groups of Girls League, was in charge of decorations and arrangements. Officers of this group are shown above with their dates. Seated, left to right, are Jane Diver, secretary; Dagmar Henry, president, and Carol Bousquet, vice president. Standing same order, Tom Abernathy, Jim Sibbet and Larry Smith. Mrs. Ann Overman is Dance-A-Lot adviser.

The Wild West came alive again in clever decorations for the "Stirrups 'n' Starlight" theme of the annual KUHS Girls League spring formal March 30 at the school. Under a star-studded blue ceiling, frontier store fronts lined one side of the ballroom and the band, The Hustlers, comprised of University of Oregon men, played from the confines of a corral. Saddles, wagon wheels, "wanted men" posters and sagebrush added to the Western atmosphere. Some of the appropriate dance titles included Wild West Waltz, Hitching Post Hop, Sagebrush Swing and Lariat Leap.

Highlight of the annual dance is the naming of the "Girl of the Year," representing each class and chosen by her classmates. The four girls chosen this year are pictured above, left to right, Nancy Baker, senior; Tessie Powell, junior; Linda Bonotto, sophomore, and Bobbie Jean Brady, freshman.

Girls League officers are pictured above at the dance with their escorts. Left to right are Sue Ann Owens, vice president; Bob Mitchell, Robin Hiatt, president; Wayne Chamberland, Nancy Nicol, secretary-treasurer, and Bob Holman. Girls League adviser is Mrs. Hazel Todd, KUHS dean of girls.

Foursome above, left to right, are Terri Stilwell, Juanita Stevens, Gail Phelps and Kenneth Blair.

Shown above, standing left to right, are Kathy Drew, Greer Drew and Kenneth Gordon. Pointing to the sign is John Ferrel.

For the evening, the refreshment room was dubbed the Chuck Wagon with tables lighted by kerosene lamps. Lined up to be served punch by Nancy Collman, right, are, from the left, Dale Mueller, Kathy Murdock, John Robinson, Ann Lindley, Grover Dahn and Kayce Martz.

— Photos by Guderian