Georgiana Puter Weds Charles Thomas Holt

The marriage of Georgiana Puter and Charles Thomas Holt was an event of March 17 at First Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Robert L. Groves officiating. The two o'clock afternoon wedding was a double ring ceremony read before an altar banked with white gladioli, green carnations and Bells of Ireland, all lighted by tall white tapers in floor candelabra. Green was also the color of pew bows.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Coy Puter, this city, and was given in marriage by her father. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Puter chose a pink lace dress with bone accessories and corsage of pink roses.

The wedding gown was a lovely princess style fashion of white satin with long sleeves and bouffant chapel train. Lace of the upper bodice extending to points over the shoulder was trimmed with pearls. A jeweled crown held the fingertip veil and on a white prayer book she carried white cymbidium orchids and cascade of Stephanotis and ribbon streamers.

Mrs. Don Stillwell, Sacramento, the former Sally Lee, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Veronika Hutchinson, Central Point, Nancy Warren, Klamath Falls, Suzanne Rogers, Prospect, and Loni Frenzel, Ashland.

The honor attendant wore a kelly green and blue brocade satin frock made like those of the bridesmaids which were kelly green. All wore matching hats with brief veils and green slippers. Their bouquets were white carnations forming single blossoms with green chenille stems, encircled with camellia leaves.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holt of Reno. His best man was Jack Joyce of Medford. Ushers were Jim Puter, this city, brother of the bride, Kenneth Adams, Al Funston and Lane Hoxworth, all of Medford.

Organist was Janice LaGrande. She also accompanied Mr. and Mrs. William Davenport, who sang a duet for the ceremony.

After the wedding, a reception was given in the church parlors, which were decorated with white and green gladioli and carnations in keeping with the color theme.

The wedding cake was served by Jodi McDuffy, Medford, and a
