College News

TO WED — Mr. and Mrs. Jack M. Buckhouse, Canby, announce the engagement of their daughter, Susanne Jo, to Dennis W. Robbins, both senior students at University of Washington. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Robbins, Sumner, Wash. A fall wedding is planned. The future bride attended University of California at Davis for two years on a McArthur Scholarship before enrolling in Washington. — Photo by Frederic-Cage, Sunnyside, Wash.

The University of Oregon's winter term honor roll, listing the names of 409 students, is the largest in the university's history. To be eligible for the honor roll, a student must earn at least a 3.50 grade point average on 12 or more term hours.

Students included on the honor roll from Klamath Falls are Beverly Westlund Barmore, John Cox, Virginia Learning, Robert Mitchell, Paul Moore, Russell Schult, Wendell Smith and Marv Wayburn.

Randy Balsiger was recently promoted to the rank of corporal at St. John's Military School, Salinas, Kan., where he is a sophomore.

Betty Tesch, freshman majoring in business education, has been named honorary cadet captain of the Eastern Washington State College Sponsor Corps, women's auxiliary of the college's Reserve Officers Training Corps detachment.

Carol Baker is a member of the 34-voice touring choir of La Verne College, La Verne, Calif. The group was selected from the 80-voice a cappella choir of the college and has recently completed a 15-day concert tour in Washington, Oregon and Idaho.

Susan Merryman was initiated into Gamma Xi Chapter of Alpha Delta Pi sorority on March 23. She is a freshman Spanish major at University of California at Santa Barbara.

UNIT OFFICERS — At the last meeting of the Altamont Home Extension Unit at Joan's Kitchen, new officers were installed for the coming year. Pictured, left to right, are Mrs. W. H. Spiller, treasurer; Mrs. Herbert Willey, chairman; Mrs. Don Redfield, secretary, and Mrs. Merle Jackson, county advisory committee chairman, who was installing officer. Bonanza Club Has Meeting

BONANZA — President Jean McFall conducted the April 2 meeting of the Bonanza Women's Club. The secretary was instructed to write thank you notes to Mrs. George Wu for an electric percolator, to Mrs. Bob Brett and her 4-H sheep club for an electric water heater, and to the Brownie Group for $24 proceeds from a recent tea.

There will be no card party in April. Mrs. Harold Williams and Mrs. Cecil Haley will host one in May.

Dale Smelcer, Mabel Pepple and Esther Brown were named to the nominating committee.

Members were reminded of the Bonanza Farm Bureau meeting

April 17 when Walt McIntyre, Klamath Falls, will be the speaker.

Club Slates Dance Review

MOUNT SHASTA — Soroptimist Club met recently to discuss Mrs. Derlene Choula's dance revue to be presented in Mount Shasta High School auditorium on May 11 at 8 p.m. All proceeds are to go to the club's citizenship and scholarship award fund. A dress rehearsal is scheduled for May 10 and tentative plans include a performance in McCloud on May 15.

Argyll Adams and Peggy Walsh are in charge of posters; Lillian Nielsen and Olivia Thebolt, tickets; Virginia Baum and Aileen Simmers, publicity, and Lucille Gardner and Mildred Wright, programs.
