Loser Play Makes Bid

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

North has a sound raise to two hearts and South has plenty for his jump to game, but the cards lie wrong for declarer and if West opens the jack of spades South will have no play for his contract.

Fortunately for declarer, West opens the jack of diamonds South covers with dummy's queen. For all he knows West may have led from king-jack-ten. East produces the king and it is now up to South to proceed carefully if he wants to make the hand.

As a starter, South should let the king of diamonds hold that first trick. East will probably lead a diamond back. Now there is no defense.

South takes his ace. After drawing trumps he goes after the clubs to see if the suit will break to allow him to discard a spade. The clubs fail to break, but now South is able to make the hand by the use of the play known as "loser on loser."

South leads dummy's last club. East plays his jack and South discards a low spade.

East is in the lead with the second defensive trick and is now forced to lead either a spade or a diamond. A spade lead makes dummy's king good, while a diamond allows South to ruff in dummy and discard one of his two remaining spades.

Moose Vote On April 25

Bob Tesch, governor of the Klamath Falls Lodge No. 1106, Loyal Order of the Moose, announced recently that the election of officers for the coming year will be held at the Moose Home on Thursday, April 25.

Balloting will take place during the regular meeting of the lodge, and the polls will be open from 7:30 to 8 p.m., according to Tesch.

Seeking the top post of governor is Ben Horn. Others nominated are Guy Troxel Jr., governor; Herb Starkey, prelate; and Leonard Oberg, treasurer; all for a one-year term. Roger Babcock is nominated for a three-year term as trustee.

The slate of candidates was selected by the nominating committee which made its report at the March 21 lodge meeting. The committee is composed of the elective officers, past five governors in the order of juniority, and five members appointed by the governor.

Installation of the new officers has been scheduled for Saturday, April 27, and the new board will take over the administration of the lodge officially on May 1.

Real name of Lenin was Vladimir Ilich Ulyanov.
