

Foreigners Get Blame For Jobless Yankees

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: Most of the problems in your column are personal. This problem involves all Americans.

Why do we all come to our great country and create problems for Americans? There is only so much room here and so many jobs. We owe it to our own true Americans to take care of them first.

Everyone knows there are at least five million jobless Americans. Plenty of these people are living in slums. The foreigners will work cheaper so they get first crack at the jobs. Is this fair to our own people?

If the foreigners don't like the policies of their respective countries why don't they fight for what they think is right and gain their independence? America did—PROUD AMERICAN.

Dear Proud: Every now and again I hear from an ignorant malevolent mule waving the American flag in an attempt to divert attention from the central problem—his own miserable failure.

Anyone who has ever looked at an American history book knows this country was made great by "foreigners" who came in search of freedom and opportunity. We all have roots in another part of the world—unless we happen to be American Indians.

In case you've forgotten, the words on the Statue of Liberty read:

"Give me your tired, your poor, your huddled masses, yearning to breathe free. The wretched refuse of your teeming shore. Send these, the homeless, the tempest-tossed to me."

Dear Ann Landers: I am one of four college seniors living off campus in a private home. Together we pay $100 a month for two bedrooms plus kitchen privileges.

During the past few weeks I've been washing and ironing my fiancé's white shirts. He is struggling to get by, as most of us are, and I am helping him out in this way. My fiancé wears four white shirts a week.

The landlady feels that I am running up her electricity bill because of this extra ironing. Instead of speaking directly to me about it she has been talking behind my back.

I'm upset over this and would like your advice on how to handle it. Thank you in advance.

PRESSING FOR A SOLUTION.

Dear Pressing: Even if you are a slow ironer you can iron a white shirt in 15 minutes. It costs 15 cents per hour to operate an electric iron. This means you are kiting the lady's electric bill by six cents a month.

The next time you pay the rent put six cents in an envelope with a little note explaining that you insist on paying for the extra kiting.

Dear Ann: I was a psychology major in college and prided myself on being able to work out most of my problems in a mature, adult manner. My "mature, adult manner" somehow has deserted me.

Henry, my 16-year-old brother, was made a ward of the state because my parents were unable to handle him. My father is an alcoholic and my mother is a neurotic with an uncontrollable temper.

When I married last year I took Henry into our home. My husband and I were appointed his legal guardians by the court. The boy has shown remarkable progress. He is friendly, cooperative and does better in school.

My mother, seeing the vast improvement, insists that we give him back. I wouldn't consider it and legally she can't take him. I've told her this repeatedly but she keeps harping. Henry hates living in her home and is frightened to death of her. Whenever she comes over he has a "re-lapse."

What shall I do—SISTER?

Dear Sister: Visit your mother in her home. Tell her she cannot come to yours.

Henry is fighting a tough battle and it's obvious that his mother's presence makes him ill. This may seem cruel but it is essential for the boy's recovery. Let's hope your mother will come to understand why.

REIN, Switzerland (UPI)—An Austrian lawyer accused of being Adolf Eichmann's accomplice was held by Swiss police tonight.

A police spokesman said Eric Raja, whom the Jews charged was responsible for the death of Anne Frank, was picked up at St. Moritz near Lugano, this morning and held for questioning.

The Federal Justice and Police Department announced earlier today that Raja would be expelled as an undesirable alien.

The spokesman said that, apart from the accusations that Raja helped Eichmann in his mass extermination of Europe's Jewry, it was believed he entered Switzerland illegally.

Driver Hurt In Accident

The driver of a car involved in a two-car accident at 1:30 p.m. Monday near the intersection of North Third and Pine streets, received minor injuries while his vehicle received major damage.

Willard Don Miller, 33, 183 Washington Avenue, was treated for cuts and bruises at Klamath Valley Hospital after his vehicle collided with a car driven by Pauline Joy Hamilton, 55, 2000 Orchard Street. She was cited by city police for failing to yield the right of way.

According to the police reports Miller was driving south on Third while the second car, proceeding north on Third, attempted to make a left turn and collided with the Miller vehicle.

Police said Miller's car skidded 21 feet as Miller attempted to avoid the collision.
