

WINS SCHOLARSHIP — Ann Breithaupt, center, senior at Henley High School and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Breithaupt, receives the scholarship given annually by Business and Professional Women to a Klamath County senior girl who intends to pursue a business career. Ann plans to take elementary education at Oregon State University. Making the presentation is Frances Taylor, BPW president. Ethel Whitlatch, BPW personal development chairman is at left. Entertainment at the annual affair honoring senior girls included a style show by Bon Bazaar and Fashion Villa with OTI girls serving as models and Mrs. Katie Lake, commentator.

Prosperity Lodge Meets

At the last regular meeting of Prosperity Rebekah Lodge conducted by Noble Grand Charlotte Anderson, delegates to the Rebekah Assembly were chosen. Sister Olive Hanna was elected first delegate and Sister Harriette Estes, second delegate. Mrs. Estes was also recommended as district deputy president. This year the Assembly will be held at The Dalles on May 21, 22 and 23.

Announcements were made concerning the CCA award project and the rummage sale scheduled for Aug. 30 and 31. The Social Club will meet at the home of Juanita Lundsten on Monday, April 15, at 12:30 p.m. for a dessert luncheon. A spaghetti dinner will be staged at the hall on April 27.

For the meeting, the hall was decorated with balloons and Japanese lanterns. April Fool's pranks comprised the program. Refreshments were served by George and Helen Blanas, Paul and Olive Hanna and Edith Barleen and Tom Grubb.

The next meeting on Thursday, April 18, will be preceded by a potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. with the Odd Fellows as honored guests.

FUTURE BRIDE — Mr. and Mrs. Alva McKinney of Klamath Falls announce the engagement and forthcoming marriage on June 8 of their daughter, Bonnie, to Donald Biles of Bly. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Biles, this city. The young couple will reside in Bly where he is employed by Weyerhaeuser.

Sorority Honors Three

MOUNT SHASTA — An open meeting of Xi Theta Tau sorority was held April 4 at the home of Mrs. Robert Hill, honoring eligible members for exemplar chapter. Mrs. Aaron Richardson was co-hostess. Those honored were Mrs. Loretta Tucker, Mrs. Jean Ferraris and Mrs. June Letcher. A cake was presented to Mrs. Arthur Adler on the occasion of her birthday.

Each member made and modeled a novelty Easter bonnet for competition, with Mrs. Tucker declared the winner.

E. Allen Weston of College of the Siskiyous was guest speaker. His subject was "Enjoyment of Art."

Easter scenes were used to decorate the room, with daffodils and crocus on the table.

A series of coffee klatches, held during the months of March and April, netted $45 to be contributed to the Siskiyou County Crippled Children's Society.

PARTY PRIZE — Again this year, Venture Club will stage a card party on Tuesday evening, April 23, in the city library club room at 7:30 p.m. Proceeds from the one dollar admission will go to club service projects. Additional entertainment will be a fashion show from Bon Bazaar, modeled by members of Venture and Soroptimist clubs. Rae Dean Marks is chairman of the party. Refreshments will be served and prizes will go to each table in addition to the special prize of the hamper filled with assorted items shown by three Venture girls. Left to right are Carla Amacker, Anna Maria Eck, club president, and Maureen Lummus. Guests are asked to bring cards of their choice and make reservations by calling Anna Maria Eck, TU 4-7518.

Cream Is Daily Must

By ALICIA HART

The rage to age as gracefully as possible, or to ward off nature with a restraining hand is here to stay. And well it might be. Too often pure laziness is the cause of excessive wrinkles and dry skin.

Your cosmetic wardrobe need not look as though you were bent upon being the champion bottle or jar collector. Yet, it should be complete with basic creams, lotions and skin fresheners suited to your special skin problems.

Proper removal of make-up and a good cleansing are probably the most important steps to retaining a glowing complexion. If you give yourself the towel test, you will see that merely washing your face is not enough. Make-up has an oil base and requires a cleansing cream to coax it off.

Follow this with a sudsy washing, then a night cream.

If you have oily skin, select a light, liquefying cream and do not let it stay on your skin too long. Dry skin, however, needs all the lubricating it can get so you will want an emollient because it contains lubricating ingredients.
