Reames Country Club Auxiliary members braved the rigors of a typical spring day of sleet, rain and wind on Friday, April 5, to attend the annual luncheon to open the season. Spring blossoms in planters, vases and attached to graceful manzanita branches denoted "Spring Is In The Air," theme chosen by the luncheon chairman, Mrs. E. P. Renick and her committee, Mrs. John Ashley, Mrs. W. R. Bradshaw, Mrs. Jerry Rajnus, Mrs. Carl Coulson and Mrs. Chester Stonecypher.

A social hour preceded the luncheon meeting, presided over by Mrs. John West, auxiliary president.

For entertainment, "clothes for here and there" were modeled from Bon Bazaar by OTI girls. Commentator was Mrs. Katie Lake.

Mrs. George Brosterhous, left, and Mrs. Stanley Miller, in the picture above, admire an attractive arrangement on the luncheon table.
