Claudia Lane Is Bride Of Nicky D. Savage

Claudia Ann Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Lane, became the bride of Nicky Darwyn Savage, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Savage, March 23 at Immanuel Baptist Church. The double ring ceremony was read at 8 p.m. by the Rev. D. J. Mead of Suburban Heights Baptist Church. Decor for the candlelight ceremony was in a pink and white color theme with light pink snapdragons and deep pink carnations combined with woodwardia fern at the altar. The aisle cloth was also pink and pews were marked with pink satin ribbon roses.

Marie Obenchain was organist and accompanist for Bill Davernport, the soloist.

Carl Lane escorted his daughter to the altar and gave her in marriage. Her gown of imported white brocade was fashioned with bell top sheath floor length skirt attached to a basque bodice with short sleeve over-jacket, buttoned down the back. The skirt was enhanced with a detachable cathedral train of the same French brocade. A four tiered bouffant shoulder veil of silk English illusion was held in place by a Dior satin rose matching the brocade of the wedding gown. She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and ivy.

Delores Lummus was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Julie Bratton, Hazel Robertson, Marjorie Wayburn and Jean Shepard, all of this city.

Their frocks of pale pink silk organza featured elbow length sleeves on basque bodices with high front necklines coming to V in back. The bell-top skirts were finished in back with bustle type bows. Pink was the color of their slippers, mitts and veils which were held by soft organza roses. Each wore a white gold cross with rhinestones, gift of the bride, and carried a cascade of pine sensation roses.

Donald Ambers Jr. was best man and ushers were Stanley Wood, David Stippich, Eddie Wilcher and Roger Kurtz, all of Klamath Falls.

Pink snapdragons and carnations decorated the ballroom of the Winema Hotel for the reception which followed the church service. In the receiving line with the newlyweds were their mothers, Mrs. Lane chose to wear a beige silk linen sheath, matching accessories and orchid corsage. Mrs. Savage wore a turquoise silk shantung sheath with bone accessories and orchid corsage.

A lovely four tiered cake, made by Mrs. Harry Mauch, cousin of the bridegroom, was decorated with leather fern and jingle pink roses, and stood between pink tapers on the bride's table. It was served by Mrs. Mauch, Mrs. Robert Kidwell, aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. Leonard Lummus and Mrs. Kenneth Graham. Mrs. Bill Marshall and Mrs. Donald Ambers served coffee and tea and Mrs. Roger Kurtz, punch. Karen Leaning attended the guest book and Mrs. Virgil Bigby and Maureen Lummus received gifts. Mrs. Nellie Nicol served as reception hostess.

The newlyweds left after the reception for a honeymoon in San Francisco. For traveling the bride changed to a hot pink mohair sheath with matching jacket, multi-colored shoes and bag. At her shoulder was a white cattleya orchid.

Both young people are graduates of Klamath Union High School. They will reside at 4410 Crosby Street. The bridegroom is an employee of Safeway Stores.

Out-of-town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Freeland McLeod, Portland, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Coker, Corona, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Lane and Gloria, Casa Grande, Ariz.; DeDe Floyd, Medford; Mr. and Mrs. Art Mills, Redding; Mr. and Mrs. Jim Hall, Eugene; Alan Plimpton, Lakeview; Dale Peterson, Albany.

On March 24, at Holy Rosary Catholic Church in Jacksonville, Fla., Annette Rahaim became the bride of William Charles Mesner, son of Mrs. Violet Mesner and the late Harry Mesner of Klamath Falls. Mrs. Mesner was present for her son's wedding.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Rahaim, Jacksonville, and was given in marriage by her father. The Rev. Walter J. Bueche officiated at the 4 p.m. ceremony.

The bride made her gown and that of her attendant, who was her sister, Katherine Wright. The wedding gown was fashioned of white silk organza over tulle with a Chantilly lace jacket. Her fingertip veil was attached to a headpiece of pearls and sequins. The wedding bouquet was made of white carnations centered with a white orchid.

The matron of honor wore a street length frock of aqua silk organza over tulle with a fitted bodice and bouffant skirt. Aquatic carnations formed her nosegay bouquet.

Otis Cates was best man and Ricky Taylor was ring bearer. Susan Ricks was flower girl. A reception followed at the home of the bride's parents. Later the bridal pair left for a wedding trip to Southern Florida. They plan to make their home in Jacksonville. The bridegroom is a graduate of Klamath Union High School and was recently discharged from the Navy after serving four years aboard the carrier Shangri-La.

During her stay in Jacksonville, Mrs. Violet Mesner also visited with her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bivier. On her return to the West Coast she stopped in Los Angeles for a stay with her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mesner and their two children. The younger Mrs. Mesner is the former Lyn Perkins of this city.

Church Rites Unite Couple

The First Methodist Church in Lakeview was the scene on March 16 for the marriage of Donna Darlene Riggs and Stephen R. Stancliff. The Rev. Lester Boulton officiated at the double ring ceremony before the candle light altar banked with pink and lavender flowers.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Riggs and parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Stancliff, all of New Pine Creek.

Organist was Mrs. Lester Boulton. Robert Shottwell sang "How Do I Love Thee" and "The Lord's Prayer."

For her wedding, the bride chose a short gown of white rosepoint lace over satin in princess style. A silk rose blossom held the short bluish veil of nylon net and she carried a lavender orchid on a white prayer book.

Mrs. Pat Mulvey, Klamath Falls, was matron of honor for her sister. Bridesmaids were Iris Johnson and Jean Snider, both of Lakeview. They were dressed alike in shades of lavender and pink and wore corsages of lavender and white.

Richard Cloud, New Pine Creek, was best man and ushers were Don Faris, Eugene, and Dave Noble, Lakeview.

The wedding reception was held at Van's Colonial Room, which brushed gently.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Wilson, Mrs. Liz Hedrick, Mary Anne and Greg, Alice and Lenard Lee, Jim Mulvey and sons, Gary, Mick and Kim, all of Klamath Falls; Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Harr, grandparents of the bride, Adin, and Mrs. Helen Faris, Eugene.
