Delta Kappa Gamma Honors Future Teachers

A luncheon honoring young prospective women teachers from the Klamath County high schools was staged April 6 by Alpha Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, international honor society for women teachers. The guests were welcomed by the president, Mrs. Dorothy Adams.

Louis Corrigan, adviser to the Lucille O'Neill Chapter of Future Teachers of America, spoke on the aims and accomplishments of this organization. Leigh Melton, KUHS senior and president of the group, spoke further regarding problems and activities of this group.

The program continued with a group of vocal selections by "Harmony of China, Glass and Silver." Luncheon will be served at noon by the Midland Grange.

Attractive Easter decorations were created by Mrs. Irma Quick, Mrs. Jane Craig, Marjorie Howe, Mrs. Helen McDonald, Mrs. Buena Stone, Mrs. Lucile O'Neill, Mrs. Ruth Obenchain and Mrs. Addie Mae Nixon.

NOT ON YOUR FINGER!

New string laces for a three-eyelet tie will tempt a girl to put the knot in her laces and not on her finger as a reminder this summer. And they point out the fashion look of matching rope braid outlining the sole edge.

THANKS!

The Klamath County Medical Society Auxiliary wishes to thank everyone — contributors, buyers and the many others who participated and helped make its recent Public Auction a success.

Home Extension Units Give Monthly Reports

LINDLEY HEIGHTS

Lindley Heights Unit met on March 28 at the home of Connie Stroop. The project lesson, "Creative Cooking with Mixes," was presented to the members. A business meeting followed the luncheon. Kathryn Billings reported on the results of the program planning meeting. The unit decided to save stamps for ACWW also to start saving Betty Crocker coupons for the OTI project fund.

Evelyn Loomis and Kathryn Billings presented the lesson, "Facing the Middle Years," to the Lindley Heights Unit on March 13 at Joan's Kitchen. A report on program planning was given by Kathryn Billings.

MIDLAND

The Midland Unit met March 14 at Joan's Kitchen with eight members and two guests for the lesson on "Facing the Middle Years." Goldina Thomson and Grace Stark led the lesson.

Following luncheon, Francis Skinner and Beverly Bower spoke to the group on 4-H camps and scholarships.

SHASTA - HOMEDALE

Shasta - Homedale Extension Unit met at the fairgrounds March 15 for a business meeting and project lesson. Project leaders, Theresa Kennedy and Hope Berry, gave a very inspiring and interesting lesson on "Facing the Middle Years." Leah Farrell, chairman, named a nominating committee, and Loyce Leech, secretary - treasurer, read discussions for the coming festival.

BLY

Bly Unit met at the home of Mrs. Thomas Thomson on March 14. The project lesson was on "Facing the Middle Years." The meeting was called to order by Mrs. Larry Little, vice chairman, and roll call was answered by 11 members. A request was made for a committee member for the County Advisory Board to represent Bly. The selection will be made at the next meeting.

Mrs. James asked for contributions to the "Pennies for Friendship" fund. Mrs. James is the unit chairman for ACWW. The pennies are used to support the organization's magazine and to help pay part of the expenses for one person from each state to go to the World Conference, which is held in a different country of the world every three years. The remaining part of the person's expenses are paid by the state. Anyone wishing to do so may also correspond with other members in foreign countries through the "Letters for Friendship" section of ACWW.

Mrs. Carl Chase informed the group of the lessons that will be presented next year. Mrs. Thomson read a letter from Mrs. Ruth Dyer concerning the unit's assignment at the festival.

Mrs. James Dixon and Mrs. Fred Morris were project leaders.

ALTAMONT

Altamont Extension Unit met at Joan's Kitchen March 5. Twenty-two members and two guests were presented the lesson on "Facing the Middle Years" by Dale Custer and Helen Gredel.

Pansy Jackson gave a report on the Klamath County Advisory Committee meeting.

Jack Lyons, OTI, was guest speaker. His talk covered the new buildings on the new campus. Altamont is planning some means of raising money to help furnish the dormitory lounge.

The nominating committee gave its report on nominations for the coming year, and the following officers were elected: Maybelle Willey, chairman; Helen Gredel, vice chairman; Ethel Redfield, secretary; Marjion Spillar, treasurer.

CRESCENT NITE-OUTS

The Crescent Nite-Out Extension Unit met at the home of Jan Hankins March 23. Thirteen members were present to participate in the project lesson on "Facing the Middle Years." The lesson was given by Phyllis Yates and Sherri Austin.

Election of new officers for the coming year was held. The following officers were elected: Lorelei Greenwood, chairman; Sharon Spangler, vice chairman; Mona Bird, secretary-treasurer. The new officers will be installed by Pat Karsten, county advisory committee member, at the next meeting.

The April meeting will be held at the home of Rosalie Cole. Project lesson "You, the Informed Food Shopper" will be led by Nellie Dano and Fern Rametos.

HENLEY

Eleven members of the Henley Unit met at Joan's Kitchen March 12. The project lesson, "Facing the Middle Years," was led by Joyce McKune and Eileen Ongman. The unit voted to again give a $10 4-H scholarship.

Program planning for the coming year was discussed.

The Henley Unit will have the booth, "Nutrition, Now and 25 Years Ago" at the festival. Beth Williams, booth chairman, asked for ideas and contributions of items for the booth.

Members were asked to bring Betty Crocker coupons to the wishing well at the festival. They will be used for the new OTI lounge.

The following women were responsible for cleaning Joan's Kitchen March 21: Joyce McKune, Beth Williams, Myrtle Fleming, Eileen Ongman, Eileen Herringshaw and daughter, Margaret.

CHILQUIN

Mrs. William Priebe and Mrs. Alvin Youngblood presented the project lesson on "Facing the Middle Years" to 13 members of the Chilquin extension unit, at the home of Mrs. Leone Northrup.

There was some discussion of contributing funds to the OTI project and saving Betty Crocker coupons for this fund.

MALIN

Ten members of the Malin extension unit met at the Malin Community Hall March 5. The Williams, booth chairman, asked

Members and guests are invited to wine, dine and dance with the fabulous Sultan of Baghdad and his harem, the Shiek of Arab and the Nymphs of the Nile. The cocktail hour begins at 6:30 p.m., dinner at 8 o'clock followed by dancing to the Starlighter Combo at 10 p.m. Mrs. Cecil Drew may be contacted at TU 4-5010 for reservations.

Baby Boy Joins Family

Mr. and Mrs. James Jolly, Berwyn Heights, Md., are being congratulated on the birth of a son, Carl Willard, on April 5. He weighed six pounds, nine ounces.

The new arrival joins two sisters, July and Jennifer.

Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Read Willard, Klamath Falls, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Jolly, Gresham.

Mrs. Lelia Harvey of Bakersfield is a great-grandmother.

FOR SLIM ONES

Beach time is coming. But don't succumb to the new two-piece bathing suits, no matter how attractive they look in the store, unless you are a slim as a blade of grass. They will make you look heavier because they cut your figure in the middle. And if your midriff isn't as flat as a pancake, they will emphasize the bulge.

STUDIES NURSING — Rama La Grande was one of 106 students of Emanuel Hospital School of Nursing to be capped in the traditional Florence Nightingale lamp lighting ceremony recently. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack La Grande and is attending school on a scholarship awarded her by the Klamath County Medical Auxiliary. She was graduated from KUHS in 1962.

NEW FOOTPRINTS!

Firm footing is easy in the new "Marina" yacht shoe with its three-part heavily ridged rubber sole. Sole, arch and heel are ridged in three different directions to help prevent slipping on wet surfaces.
