MIDLAND DAIRY CLUB

The first meeting of the Midland Dairy Club was held at the home of the leader, Mrs. Ida Scala. The meeting was called to order by Virginia Scala. Officers elected for the year at this meeting were Roy McNary, president; Virginia Scala, vice president; Shirley Scala, secretary; treasurer: John Bair, news reporter; Dixie Ager and Don Milani were elected song and game leaders.

We also decided on dues of $1 for the year.

Refreshments were served by Catherine, Josephine, Virginia and Mrs. Scala. Guests were Mrs. Tom Bailey, Mrs. Clarence Ager and Judy Ralston.

The second meeting of the Midland Dairy Club was held at the home of Mrs. Bair. President Roy McNary called the meeting to order. The record books were given out as well as enrollment cards.

Reports were given by Josephine Scala and Susan Bailey on selecting a calf.

After the meeting was adjourned, we played bingo and refreshments were served. Honored guest at this meeting was Victor Milani.

At the third meeting of the Midland Dairy Club there were fifteen members present. Last year's pins and cards were given out. Hoard's Dairyman judging sheets were given to the members. We made rope halters, and the meeting was adjourned.

The Midland Dairy Club met at the home of Mrs. Thomas Bailey for its fourth meeting. Vice president Virginia Scala called the meeting to order. Secretary and fifteen members were present. Under new business the members judged classes of cows out of the Hoard's Dairyman manual. Catherine Scala made a motion that the meeting be adjourned, and Becky Crapo seconded the motion.

Guests at this meeting were Mrs. Milani, Mrs. Crapo and Kathy Pickett. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Bailey. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crapo.

On March 10, the Midland Dairy Club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crapo. The meeting was called to order by president Roy McNary. Fourteen members were present. Projects for earning money were discussed. The money will be used to buy new calf blankets.

Dues were taken and the meeting was adjourned. Refreshments were served by Becky Crapo. The next meeting will be held on April 14.

John Bair, news reporter.

MALIN PORKERS

The first meeting of the Malin Porkers was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duncan on January, at 7:30 p.m. Marilyn Duncan last year's president conducted the meeting.

We discussed the different types of pigs that the members were interested in.

Officers elected were Larry Turner, president; John McCulley, vice president; Linda Turner, secretary; Randy Turner, sergeant-at-arms; Marilyn Duncan and Linda Elzner, social directors; Jerry Stewart, treasurer; and Bonnie Duncan, news reporter.

Dan Duncan and Phillip Petrasek are our junior leaders. Our club leaders are Charles Duncan and Inez Tallahie, our assistant leader.

Other members present at this meeting were Beverly Duncan, Joanny Oliver, Kay Turner, Bob Elzner, Judy McCulley, Jerry George, and George Mitchell.

Copies of the 4-H pledge were handed out to the new members. The meeting was adjourned by our president Larry Turner. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Duncan.

ALL-STAR REPRESENTATIVE — Sable Crawford, 16-year-old Cedarville, Calif., girl was Modoc County's All-Star representative to the 4-H conference in Berkeley.

Girl Attends All-Star Meet

ALTURAS—Modoc County's representative to the All Star 4-H Conference held in Berkeley April 7 through 10 was Sable Crawford of Cedarville, Calif. The All Star award is the highest honor a 4-H'er can receive in Modoc County.

Sable has been a member of the Cedarville 4-H Club for seven years. The 16-year-old All Star is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Don Crawford.

One hundred thirty boy and girl 4-H All Stars from 33 of the state's counties attended the conference. This year's theme was 4-H Citizens Explore Citizenship. The young people heard speakers outstanding in the business and professional fields. Also highlighted were talks by International Farm Youth Exchanges and outstanding state 4-H members.

WRONG LEG

BOURNEMOUTH, England (UPI) — John Barker said his 2-year-old son, Ashley, broke his right leg but when he went to the hospital they put a cast on the left leg.

Barker said a doctor at the hospital told him "that sort of thing does happen" and then changed the cast.
