

Western Dumplings

First cousin to a rabbit, these western style dumplings, perked up with green pepper and celery slices make a rich, flavorful meal, a change of pace from fish dishes. Since the ingredients are kept on hand in a well-run kitchen, this is a good spur-of-the-moment dish.

Simple to assemble and quick to cook, these are a perfect choice for the electric skillet—dramatic at the table too, as the dumplings bubble merrily in the mixture of convenient canned tomato sauce and special seasonings. Add an herb salad, a wedge of pie, a beverage—pres-to!—you have a quickie meal that's welcome 'most any time of day or night.

WESTERN DUMPLINGS
(Serves 6-8)

- 1/4 cup poly-unsaturated oil
- 1/2 cup sliced green pepper
- 1/2 cup sliced celery
- 1 can (15 ounces) tomato sauce
- 1 1/2 cups water
- 2 cups biscuit mix

1 cup shredded Cheddar cheese
1/2 cup milk

Heat oil in large skillet with tight fitting lid. Sauté peppers and celery until slightly softened, about 10 minutes. Add tomato sauce and water; bring to boiling. Combine biscuit mix, cheese and milk; stir until well mixed. Drop by tablespoons into bubbling tomato mixture. Reduce heat and simmer 10 minutes, uncovered; cover and simmer 10 more minutes.

LENTEN BLESSING — Western dumplings are hearty food, good at any time of the year but especially so during meatless meals. They are easy to prepare with canned tomato sauce and other ingredients you keep on hand.

Frozen Cranberry Salads

Tuck some cranberry salads into the freezer this week for the coming dinner. Spoon the salad mixtures into individual salad molds or fluted cup cake papers in muffin tins for freezing. When molds are frozen, carefully unmold and wrap in cellophane or silver foil to store in the freezer until the festive meal.

Choose one of these three colorful cranberry mixture for your freezer. Frozen Cranberry Fruit Mold is a blend of whole cranberry sauce, crushed pineapple and sour cream.

CRANBERRY FRUIT MOLD
1 lb. can whole cranberry sauce
1 (9-oz) can crushed pineapple, drained
1 cup commercially soured cream

Fold cranberry sauce and crushed pineapple into soured cream. Spoon into salad molds. Freeze until firm. Unmold and wrap in cellophane or silver foil. Store in freezer until serving time.

Here's a two-layer frozen cranberry salad that can be frozen in individual molds or a loaf pan. A flavorful cranberry layer on the bottom, a creamy white layer on top.

FROZEN CRANBERRY LAYER SALAD
1 lb. can Jellied Cranberry Sauce
2 tablespoons lemon juice
Beat cranberry sauce with rotary beater until saucy. Combine with lemon juice. Spread in the bottom of a mold or small individual molds. Cover cranberry layer with the following:

- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped
- 1/4 cup mayonnaise
- 1/4 cup powdered sugar
- 1/2 cup chopped pecans or black walnuts

Whip the cream and fold in the mayonnaise, the sugar and nuts. Spoon over cranberry layer in salad mold or molds. Place in the refrigerator freezing compartment for at least 3 hours to become firmly frozen. Unmold. Serve on lettuce with a small dab of mayonnaise.

Use your refrigerator tray to freeze this salad.

CRANBERRY BANANA CREAM SALAD
3 packages cream cheese
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup crushed pineapple
1/2 cup chopped walnuts
3 diced, medium sized bananas
1/4 cup heavy cream, whipped
1 cup jellied cranberry sauce, cut in cubes
Beat cream cheese, mayonnaise, lemon juice, and salt together with electric mixer. Add pineapple, nuts, bananas. Fold in whipped cream then cubes of jellied cranberry sauce. Turn into refrigerator tray that has been rinsed out in cold water. Freeze until firm, about 3 hours. Slice, place each slice on lettuce bed and top with cranberry sauce cutout (heart, tulip, or any desired shape). Serve with fruit salad dressing. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

To make cut-outs: Cut jellied slices and use cookie cutters to make shapes.
