

Elks Lodge Inaugural Ball Honors New Exalted Ruler

SOCIETY

By Helen Bechen
Herald and News
Klamath Falls, Oregon Sunday, April 21, 1963

On Saturday evening, April 13, Klamath Falls Elks and their ladies honored the new exalted ruler, Robert Craig, at the annual inaugural ball. Wes Guderian photographed several groups of those who attended the gala event.

Dance music was played by Baldy's Band.

Pictured above, at left, is Robert Craig, and at right, Mike Holland, outgoing exalted ruler. Mrs. Holland is seated at left beside Mrs. Craig.

Shown in the picture at right, from the left, are Pete O'Toole, Mrs. O'Toole, Mrs. Jim Scott and Mrs. Francis Scapple.

Above, Mrs. Frank Peyton gives boutonniere to Walter Badorek as Mrs. Badorek watches. At right are Mr. and Mrs. Toin Schubert of Eureka, who were in town for the Easter weekend.

At left, are J. C. Lemire, left, and Everett White.

In the picture at right, Harry Leonard stands between Ernest Mullis and Ross Morgan, visiting representative.

Below, left, Mrs. Frank Peyton, left, chats with Mr. and Mrs. Bert Baggett.

Lower right, from the left, are Bill Evans, Lou Drager and Mike Holland.

