

BETROTHAL TOLD — Mr. and Mrs. James W. Kerns announce the engagement of their daughter, Betty Jean, to James L. Maryott. Presently they are attending Oregon State University where the future bride is a sophomore majoring in business. She is a member of Kappa Gamma. Her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Maryott, Corvallis, and is a graduate of Oregon State University. He is working on his master's degree in engineering in the Graduate School at OSU. The wedding will take place Sept. 7 at the First Presbyterian Church in Klamath Falls. — Photo by Hise Studio, Corvallis

Theta Rho Meet Held

Theta Rho Girls from the Merrill and Klamath Falls clubs accompanied by their advisers motored to Medford Saturday, April 20, for the annual district meeting. Grants Pass and Central Point are also in this district. Patti Burleigh, Merrill, president of State Theta Rho Assembly and six of her officers were present. Many beautiful tributes and exhortations were given by each club. The representative from Central Point Club won the cup in competition for perfection in ritual work.

Judy Hall, Klamath Falls, was elected co-chairman and Audrey Cunningham, Merrill, was elected treasurer of the convention. A number of girls from Klamath Falls and Merrill were appointed to fill offices when the next meeting will be held in Grants Pass April 1964.

Each club is preparing to attend the State Theta Rho Assembly to be held in Merrill June 21-23 with Patti Burleigh presiding.

Stage Tea

Under umbrellas filled with wisteria Klamath Falls Sojourners held their annual spring tea entitled "April Showers" in the Pine Grove Room of the Willard Hotel on Saturday, April 6. Approximately 35 members and guests were present for the affair.

Cards started at 1 p.m. and individual table prizes were awarded to the winners. Pastel tallies with gold umbrellas were made by Mrs. Brooks Dickerman. The special prize was won by Mrs. C. Davis.

The tea table was beautifully set with silver and decorated by Mrs. Jack Holt with an umbrella filled with hydrangeas. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. Otto Biber, president, Mrs. Paul Meier, vice president and past presidents, Mrs. John Fern, Mrs. Wayne Horton, Mrs. F. W. Carter and Mrs. Ted Bechtel.

Following the tea a fashion show was presented by the Bon Bazaar and the Fashion Villa. Katy Lake was the commentator and Mrs. Vernon Neet provided the background music. Models were members of Sojourners.

Mrs. G. L. Crowe was chairman of the committee and Mrs. Hal Rotrock was co-chairman. They were assisted by Mrs. Brooks Dickerman, Mrs. Gus Vlahos, Mrs. Jack Holt, Mrs. Earl Nash, Mrs. Earl Votaw, Mrs. W. D. Dryden, Mrs. L. D. Jones and Mrs. Wayne Jensen.

Plans are now under way for Medford Day to be held in May.

BON VOYAGE — When Mrs. Lynna Martin and Mrs. Alma Cofer arrived at the local airport last week to begin their trip to Hawaii, they found members of the Aloha Past Matrons Club assembled to bid them bon voyage. The travelers were given leis decorated with toy symbols

Merrill Girl Goes Abroad

MERRILL — Katherine Ahern, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Ahern, left Sunday, April 14, on the first leg of a four-month trip to Europe. She flew from Klamath Falls to Portland, then by jet to Detroit to visit Capt. and Mrs. Daniel Barry. In Boston, her next stop, she will see Lt. and Mrs. Jack Barry and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Harnish, the former Breda O'Keefe.

The last week in April she will spend in New York and New Jersey visiting an aunt, Noreen Ahern, and friends.

The traveler sails aboard the Queen Mary on April 30. Upon arrival at Southampton, England, she will start on the 45-day land tour of 15 European countries, including Holland, Belgium, Germany, Switzerland, Austria, France, Rome, Portugal, Spain and Monaco.

Katherine will leave the planned tour in France to go to Ireland for a month's stay with relatives and friends. The first of August she will sail for home on the SS America.

Mrs. Ahern honored her daughter before her departure at a bon voyage coffee on Saturday, April 13. The refreshment table was cleverly decorated with a replica of the Queen Mary filled with white iris and elf roses.

Guests included Mrs. Dan Cashman, Mrs. Dan Barry, Mrs. Dick Hart, Mrs. Michael Noonan, Mrs. Robert Holt, Mrs. Ina O'Keefe, Mrs. Robert Norris, Mrs. Pat McCollum, Mrs. Bill Hill, Mrs. Don Pyle, Mrs. John Ellis, Mrs. Dale West, Mrs. Karl Kujac, Sara West, Mary Breeden, Joyce Noonan, Margaret Ahern, Marie Norris, Mrs. Al Kusler, Mrs. Robert Drago and Mrs. Harold Hendrickson.

Phyllis Unruh Weds In East

In a recent double ring ceremony at Saint Thomas More Catholic Church in Arlington, Va., Phyllis Unruh became the bride of Donald J. Krueger. Father Carl A. Poole officiated at the nuptial mass before the altar decorated with all-white gladioli, snapdragons and carnations.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Unruh of Malin. Mr. and Mrs. George Krueger of Cold Spring, Minn., are parents of the bridegroom.

The bride's going away outfit was a black and white check suit, black accessories and the orchid from her bridal bouquet as a corsage. The newlyweds will take their honeymoon in November when they plan a trip to Europe. Presently they are residing at 1301 South Scott Street in Arlington.

The new Mrs. Krueger, graduate of Malin High School, is secretary for the Navy Department. Her husband is with the Navy and both are stationed at the Pentagon.

Special guests included Captain and Mrs. A. H. Sallenger, USN; Captain and Mrs. N. S. Grant, Royal Navy, and Colonel and Mrs. E. Doumlier, Belgium Army.

Out-of-town guests included the bridegroom's parents and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Al Lardy, Wake Park, Minn., and Mrs. Donald Merten, Clear Lake, Minn.

Roommate of the bride, Jo Ann Cascio, was maid of honor. Mrs. John Duffett, Washington, D.C., was bridesmaid. They were dressed alike in blue silk organza princess style frocks with overskirts and scoop necklines. Matching veils were held by crowns of seed pearls. Their bouquets were nosegays of yellow carnations. Drop pearl pendants were gifts of the bride.

Donald Merten, Clear Lake, Minn., was best man and John Duffett, Washington, D.C., was a groomsman. Ushers were Carl King and Lee Hatfield, both of Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Krueger wore for the occasion an aqua blue brocade dress with black accessories and orange rose corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Unruh were unable to attend their daughter's wedding.

Following the wedding, a buffet dinner was served to 40 guests in the Polynesian decorated Pavilion Room in Arlington.

RR People Get Together

The largest social get-together of the year for the Southern Northern Neighbors, comprised of Great Northern and Southern Pacific railroad personnel of the Merrill, Malin, Macdoel and Tulelake areas, was held April 5 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Pollock in Merrill.

Games, pinocle, music and refreshments were enjoyed by the group.

The summer schedule for the group will include sight-seeing trips, motorcades and picnics. May hosts for the railroad people will be Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Crahan of Macdoel.

Grapefruit came to Florida from the West Indies.
