Library Club Enjoys Program Of Dancing

A delightful program was presented by students of the Rubye Kujac Dance Studio of Malin for members and guests of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library Club at its meeting Monday, April 8.

In the absence of Mrs. Erle Hamilton and Mrs. Ailsa Kuykendall, president and vice president respectively, Mrs. Dick Hensel conducted the meeting.

The flag salute was led by Mrs. A. O. Roenicke.

Mrs. Leroy F. Carter, program chairman for the day, introduced Mrs. Halbert Wilson of Malin, who gave a short commentary on the dances to be presented.

The program consisted of a variety of numbers, both solo and group presentations. Following an intermission, the students portrayed the ancient Chinese play, "Mei Ling and the Emperor Wu."

Bonanza Clubs Stage Banquet

BONANZA — The Bonanza Lettermen's Club and the Pep Club hosted a banquet April 6 in the school cafeteria. Chairman Mrs. Louis Randall was assisted by mothers of the club members.

Places were marked for 82 with place cards of footballs, basketballs and track shoes. Small table trees were trimmed with carnations of the athletes, who were especially honored.

Nondice McFall gave the opening address and Paul Dearborn, the invocation.

Fred Dearborn, master of ceremonies, introduced Wayne Scott, guest speaker.

The program included a poem by Linda McFall; a pantomime by Linda and Jean Fernlund, and an accordion solo by Joan Fernlund.

John Lundberg presented a trophy to Rodney Pfeiffer for making the most tackles during the football season, and Bob Freirich gave a similar trophy to Eddie Simmons for the record points made in basketball games.

James Brotherton gave the closing address.

Prosperity Lodge Meets

MALIN — Prosperity Chapter No. 160, Order of the Eastern Star, observed friendship night April 11, with Worthy Matron and Patron Helen and Ivan Ottoman presiding. The guests were entertained by a group of dance students of the Rubye Kujac Dance Studio. Several harmony numbers by Connie Unis and Marilyn Duncan were also presented.

Escorted and introduced were Frances Kalina, Grand Adah; Virginia Zumbun, member of credentials; Grand Chapter of Oregon; Josephine Zadina and Lester Hoback, worthy matron and patron, Cascade Craft Chapter, Clatskanie.

The following had birthdays in April and were escorted to the East: Doris Kircher, Lee Simington, Jo Zadina and Gladys Haulous.

Refreshments were served by Dorothy Peterson, Jean McFall and Eubetta Williams. Decorations were done by Ethel Hamilton.

Social Club will meet April 25, at the home of Emma Wilde.

Parties Fete Future Bride

TULELAKE — Johnelle Takacs, who will be the June bride of Oakley G. Parker of Newport Beach, is a graduate of the University of Nevada. They will live in the bridegroom's home city.

The miscellaneous snower on April 16 was at the home of Mrs. William Staunton who was assisted by Mrs. Peter Schwabenland, Mrs. Edgar Duckett, Mrs. Isaac Spomer, Mrs. Naomi Kurtz, Mrs. O'Keefe, Mrs. Jack Crawford, Mrs. Margaret McLain, Mrs. Julie Davis.

About 65 guests were present. The second affair, a "gadget" shower was at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis, April 9, with their daughter, Anna, a longtime friend of the bride-to-be, as hostess.

Also assisting were Mrs. Tim (Louella Davis) Murphy, Klamath Falls, and Mrs. Louis (Anna Potter) Davis.

SENORITA — Susan Hemstreet danced "Tico, Tico" for her part in the program at the Monday Library Club meeting.

OUT OF THE WEST — "The Littlest Cowboy" was portrayed at the Library Club by Jimmy Hemstreet.

Engagement Is Announced

On March 26 at Winston House on the Oregon State University campus, the engagement of Eileen Marie Robinson and Raymond Harold Andrieu was announced.

The wedding is to be Aug. 7 in St. Agatha's Church in Portland, in which city the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin R. Robinson, reside.

The future bride is a graduate of St. Mary's Academy in Portland and is presently enrolled as a freshman home economics major at the university.

Her fiancé, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Andrieu, Midland, is a senior student of agricultural economics at OSU.

The couple's engagement was blessed at St. Agatha's Catholic Church by Father Urban Keher on April 13. Witnesses were Eugene Erhart, Portland, and Ruth Andrieu, Midland.

New Arrivals

News of babies born to three out-of-town couples is of interest to their many Klamath Falls friends.

On April 16, Judge and Mrs. David R. Vandenberg received a call from Portland telling of the arrival of David Michael, first child for Mr. and Mrs. John Vandenberg. The youngster weighed seven pounds, eight ounces on arrival.

Maternal grandparents to the new Vandenberg heir are Mr. and Mrs. Harold Freeman, also of this city.

Former Klamath Falls residents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heilbroner are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter April 10 in Concord, Calif., where the father is an employee of U.S. Steel Corporation.

The baby, Janet Kay, is a new granddaughter for Mr. and Mrs. Fred Heilbroner, Klamath Falls.

On March 27, in El Paso, Texas, a boy was born to Capt. and Mrs. Hilary Lenz. Mrs. Lenz is the former Joan Juckeland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. O. Juckeland, who are in Texas now to greet their first grandchild.

The new arrival has been named Andrew.

Golfers Retain Officer Slate

LAKEVIEW — The Mark Clark Women Golfers voted to retain last year's officers at its first meeting of the season. They are: June Clark, president; Barbara Lasater, vice president; Elaine Georgetta, secretary; Shirley Capps, treasurer; Bess Hall, tournament chairman; Isabel Sundet, handicap chairman; Ellen Downs, social chairman; Mary Howard, publicity.

Ladies day for the coming season will be on Tuesday with the regular luncheon meeting to be held on the first Tuesday of every month. Pairings for each week's golf play will be posted one week in advance on the bulletin board at the pro shop.

The beginning of regular golf play for the women will be announced at a later date and members will be notified.
