

BHS Junior To Attend Institute

BONANZA — Barbara Reid, a junior at Bonanza High School, has been selected as one of 36 students to attend the summer institute in microbiology at the College of the Holy Names in Oakland, Calif. She was among 215 applicants from 20 states.

The six-week program is held to acquaint students of the biological sciences with micro-organisms such as viruses, bacteria, yeasts, and mold. It will consist of lectures, laboratory assignments, project work, and field trips.

Sponsored by the National Science Foundation, the program is limited to 11th grade girls. They are selected on the basis of scholarship, extracurricular activities, and application form answers.

Barbara, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roger Reid of Bonanza, will attend the institute from June 24 to Aug. 2, receiving a certificate of accomplishment at the end of the program. Three other girls were also selected from Oregon, Patricia McNeff of Florence; Rita Radich of Astoria, and Diane Williams of Ashland.

Final KUHS Concert Set

The fourth and final concert in the Klamath Union High School Music Department's Spring Music Concert Series will be held in the Mills School Auditorium at 8 p.m. Tuesday.

The concert will feature the concert band, under the direction of Ephraim Hackett, and the combined second a cappella choir and mixed chorus, under the direction of Don Herbig.

Tickets for the concert may be obtained from music students and will also be available at the door. Admission will be 50 cents and all proceeds will go to the music department's general operating fund. The fund is used to cover expenses and activities of the department which are not covered by school district funds.

Attendance at the KUHS concerts this year has been gratifying to both students and directors. LaMar K. Jensen, school music director, indicated.

Ranch Family Returns Home

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Molschenbacher, Lower Klamath Lake ranchers, have returned from an extended trip of 13,000 miles in time for spring farming operations.

They spent six months away with two months spent at Mesa, Ariz., the remainder of the time on the highways and sightseeing. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Molschenbacher in Las Vegas and spent some time in Florida.

District Meet

Members of the World War I Veterans and Auxiliary from Prineville, Redmond, and Bend will be guests of the local organization at a district meeting Sunday, April 28. Dinner will be served at 12 noon in the K.C. Hall.

Priest Charges Parishioner Blacked His Eye In Racial Argument

BARBARA REID

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — A Roman Catholic priest filed criminal charges Tuesday against a parishioner he said beat him and blackened his eye in a racial argument.

The Rev. Frank Ecmovich, pastor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help Church in nearby Belle Chase, filed simple battery charges against Leonard Henry Mackenroth. The argument involved a racially integrated religious instruction class.

Father Ecmovich said Mackenroth, whose child was a member of the class, came to the church rectory last Saturday afternoon with his wife and the parents of two other children in the study group.

He said the parents "launched into a verbal attack on the race issue," because white and Negro children took part in a retreat together.

"Retreat" is a period of reflection preparatory to receiving several of the sacraments of the church—in this case Holy Communion.

Class Was Integrated
Father Ecmovich, 47, still had the black eye as he talked with newsmen Tuesday night. He said the class was integrated — 4 Negroes attended with 32 white children.

Pearl divers in French Polynesia wear no underwater apparatus, but they can remain underwater for nearly two minutes.

He said when he did Mackenroth hit him on the left eye.

He said Mackenroth continued to strike him and knocked him against a filing cabinet. He said one of the other parents pulled Mackenroth back. Father Ecmovich said he extended his hand to Mackenroth, "but he and the others walked out."

Threatens A Mauling
He said Mackenroth shouted as he left: "I am going to maul you so you can't preach tomorrow."

Whether the case ever comes to trial will be up to Dist. Atty. Leander Perez Jr. He must study the affidavit the priest filed with the justice of the peace Tuesday.

HERALD AND NEWS, Klamath Falls, Oregon

Perez' father, Leander H. Perez Sr., the political leader of Plaquemines Parish in which Belle Chase is located, was excommunicated last year from the Roman Catholic Church for vocal opposition to the archdiocese's plans to desegregate the schools under its jurisdiction.

A spokesman for the archdiocese said an attack on a priest means automatic severance from the sacraments of the church.

Belle Chase schools are not desegregated. The town is about 30 miles north of Buras, La., another Plaquemines Parish community, where last year segregationists succeeded in getting a total boycott of a Catholic school which was desegregated. The school remains open, but no children attend.
