Homemaker Festival Books Extension Chiefs

Mrs. Azalea Sager, former state leader of Oregon Home Economics Extension work, will speak at the morning session of the Annual Homemaker Festival which will be held at the Klamath County Fairgrounds April 25. She will speak on "The Power of Women."

Mrs. Sager resigned from the OSU staff in 1952 after 20 years with the Extension Service. She came to the state in 1932 as clothing specialist. In 1936 she became state leader of home economics and held that position until her retirement. During the years she saw great growth in the state's home economics program. When she came, Oregon had only eight county agents and 4,000 women in extension units. Today at least one home economist serves in each county. Oregon now has 22,000 women in its organized unit program.

Mrs. Sager was born in Utah but grew up in Montana where her father was dean of agriculture for many years at Montana State College.

Affection for Mrs. Sager was demonstrated by Oregon's rural women when they named the cooperative dormitory for girls on the OSU campus in her honor. Oregon's women raised over $50,000 to build a 38-unit cooperative for women at OSU which was dedicated in 1945.

Junior-Senior Banquet Held

BLV—The Bly High School junior-senior banquet was held in the Gearhart Elementary School multi-purpose room on April 20.

William Pohl, principal, gave his salute to the seniors and praised the achievements they have made. Lorna Rente gave a brief history of each senior's 12 years of school. Toastmaster Teddy Nelson then introduced Janet Harter and Valerie Little who presented accordion solos. Nancy Clemens, Merle Clemens, and Glenda Clemens also took part in the program.

WOULDN'T WORK

TRENTON, N.J. (UPI)—State Fire Warden R. Wesley Davis said Monday there is a law on the books in New Jersey allowing police to order people out of their cars to help fight forest fires. But he told a news conference it wouldn't work in practice. "You'd have to have a man there to watch them or a minute later they'd be gone," he said.

18 Scholars Announced

EVANSTON, ILL. (UPI)—Eighteen Oregon high school seniors are winners in the National Merit Scholarship program, officials announced today.

They were among more than 1,400 Merit Scholars selected this year. Stipends vary from $400 to $500, depending on individual needs.

The Oregon winners are: Darren L. Newstein, Albany; Markita L. Price, Beaverton; Paul A. Harcombe, Clatskanie; Ernest K. Manders, Coos Bay; Marshall High School; Margaret E. Keener, Eugene; North Eugene HS; Clarence A. Bakken, Idylwild Park; Glide HS; Jean E. Bowman, Newberg; David Avshalomov, Portland, Lincoln HS.

Warren G. Harding was the sixth U.S. president to come from Ohio, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica.
