

The sparkle's inside late evening clothes in the Harvey Berin summer collection. Precisely tailored jackets hide tops with cowl necklines sparkled with jewels or jeweled straps or beads.

The glass in picture frames can be cleared of smudge by wiping with a damp cloth sprinkled with baking soda. Rinse with a clean damp cloth.

RECENT VISITORS — Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hendricks, left and right, had as their recent guests their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Willard of San Francisco. Mr. and Mrs. Willard are pictured at center. He is Macy's California Administrative Board member and was guest speaker at the Rotary Club while in the city. The younger Willard daughter, Gayle, 11, standing by her father, brought a friend, Nancy Kulvan, front center, as her guest. During the family's visit, Patty Willard, 13, was competing with the San Francisco Marionettes in swimming competition in Houston.

Thompsons Return Home

Mr. and Mrs. Robert A. Thompson have returned home from a bit of travel both south and north. They sought the sun for several weeks in Arizona, visiting Reno and Las Vegas en route.

Some time was spent in Phoenix and in Scottsdale, where they encountered Mr. and Mrs. Roy Gieger of Chiloquin while having a hurried lunch before a ball game.

In Yuma they called on Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Low.

One location which brought raves from the Thompsons was Desert Grove where the luxurious motel was set in a grove of orange and grapefruit trees and guests were invited to help themselves.

Returning to Pasadena they were guests of Mrs. Thompson's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. T. L. Torgerson.

The travelers returned to Klamath Falls long enough to repack their suitcases for a jaunt to Portland so Mrs. Thompson could act as toastmistress at the second annual violet luncheon of Sigma Kappa. Representatives of the sorority were present from Western Washington and Oregon at the luncheon held in the Aerodrome of the Aero Club.

Of course they also saw their daughter and son-in-law, Sue and Mike Dougherty and grandson, Scott.

CHAMPION — Patty Willard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Willard (Ruth Hendricks), San Francisco, and granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Hendricks, Klamath Falls, has the distinction of being the youngest national champion in the history of senior A.A.U. synchronized swimming competition. The 13-year-old girl swims with the San Francisco Marionettes, which successfully defended the senior national indoor title they have claimed since 1961 in Houston, Tex., on April 12-14. Patty placed first in team, fourth in duet with her partner, Margaret Drubrow, and 10th in solo in the entire U.S. for senior competition. The young champion is active in school affairs, drama and holds a straight-A scholarship record. She has also received the Curved Bar rank in intermediate scouting.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

DAIRY—Mrs. George Wu gave a birthday party for her grandson, Sonny Wu, April 13 at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wu. Sonny was five years old and a beautiful cake was the center of attraction. Present were Sonny and Jackie Wu, Tommy Reid, Mary and Connie Byfield, Danny, Kathy and Susan Pederson, Lani and Mimi Pang of Klamath Falls, Tami Hubble, Stevie, Cindy and Rodney Roberts, Suzie and Rosalie Wu, Mrs. Vernon Hubble, Mrs. Russell Pederson, Mrs. Charles Roberts, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Wu, Mrs. Alfred Wu, Teddy Tang, Dr. and Mrs. Clarence Pang of Klamath Falls and Mr. and Mrs. George Wu.

Youngsters from six to nine will sport a coordinated "just like dad" look this spring, the National Cap and Cloth Hat Institute reports. One new idea for the boys, interpreted from adult headwear, is a snap brim hat of raffia cloth with bright print band and a perky side feather.
