

CELEBRATE — The past weekend was one of celebration for Mr. and Mrs. Dick Marks, who observed their 25th wedding anniversary on Saturday, April 20, and his birthday the following day. The Marks are shown at right being congratulated by Mr. and Mrs. Ed Brosterhouse during the Reames Auxiliary dance Saturday night. On Monday evening, 30 couples arranged a no-host dinner at the Satellite Room as a surprise to Mr. and Mrs. Marks. Ex-Reames pro Clark Good and Mrs. Good came from Medford for the event. The Marks were married in Carthage, Mo., and came to Merrill in 1946 to operate a cafe for 14 years. The past three years they have operated Reames Club facilities. They have three children, Rae Dean and Vicki at home and Dick, who is stationed with the Marine Corps in San Diego.

Tule Couple Return Home

TULELAKE — Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ryckman had an enjoyable two-month trip in warmer climates during the winter visiting former residents of this community. After leaving home Feb. 11 they visited with Mrs. Ryckman's sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnson of Alturas, at Twenty-nine Palms with Mrs. C. J. Proctor now living with a son, Bill, while Mr. Proctor is a patient in a veterans hospital. They saw Death Valley and the famous Date Festival in Indio, attended by about 30,000 spectators the day they were there. Highlights of the festival was the horse show, one of the most spectacular shows of its kind in the United States.

At Indio they visited with Mrs. Alida Macken and Mrs. Cora Young and had their first helicopter ride. They also saw Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kadous of Tulelake and Roy Fox of Merrill, saw Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mayfield, Thermal, Calif. Mayfield was at one time manager of the Klamath Basin Cooperative at Hatfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Fish of Tulelake were visiting a son, Ted Fish, and family at Thermal. A Tulelake colony spends the winter in Phoenix and Mesa including Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Meshke, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Scott, the Pat McGinleys, Ben Wilsons, Ival Wolfes, L. W. Hartleys, Jess Browns and Mrs. Frank Bell.

At Yuma they saw Mr. and Mrs. William Gunlock, Mr. and Mrs. Woodman and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mosebar.

CLUB MAKES GIFT — Mrs. Leroy F. Carter, left, project chairman of the Klamath Falls Woman's Library Club, presents check to Mrs. Irene Hawkins, assistant librarian at city library. Raising funds for new books for the city library has long been a project of the library club and the check is generally presented during National Library Week.

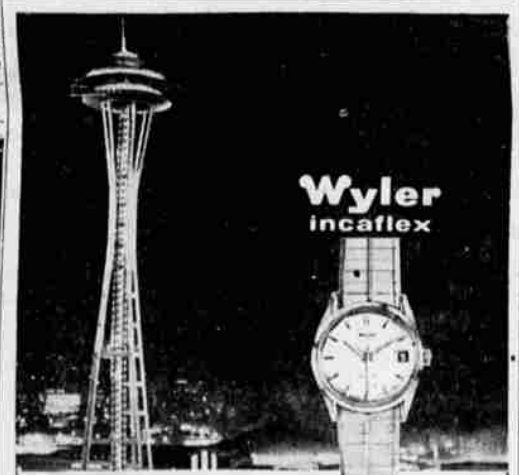

Working up perspiration usually takes "vigah" and a new sweatshirt advertises the connection. The shirts with "vigah" imprinted on the fronts also contain a physical fitness coat of arms inspired by President Kennedy. The crest features a rocking chair.

Mrs. Woodman and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mosebar.

They visited Disneyland, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ryckman and at Santa Susanna with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Easley, at Fresno with Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Tefry and at Red Bluff with a daughter and son-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Nelson.

They rested for a week at the Ryckman cabin at Shasta Lake before returning home.

SUPPOSE YOUR WATCH DROPPED FROM THE TOP OF THE SEATTLE SPACE NEEDLE

Wyler tried it—dropped 6 watches a total of 20 times. Yes, the crystals cracked. But, the watches continued to run perfectly. While we don't recommend treating any watch this way, please note Wyler's powerful guarantee: balance wheel replaced free for life if ever broken. It's a unique kind of balance wheel—flexible to absorb the shocks that cause 4 out of 5 watch breakdowns. But this kind of guarantee is based on more than a brilliant invention—it is backed by the quality and precision craftsmanship that has brought Wyler international fame for 40 years. If you want beauty, dependability and quality in a fine watch, drop in and look some over. Prices on Wyler Incallex start at $29.95 p.t. We guarantee you will wear this watch with pride for years to come.

Exclusive Wyler Incallex balance wheel—absorbs shocks, prevents break-downs. Fully guaranteed against breakage.

Ordinary balance wheel—rigid bones break shocks to delicate balance mechanism, causing 4 out of 5 watch breakdowns.

WISH TO SEND FLOWERS BY WIRE for YOUR Mother?

Come in or call and give us the name and address of recipient — what you wish to send — and what you wish to say.

You are requested to make a purchase of at least $6.00 worth of flowers. In addition to your floral purchase, you will be charged a servicing fee of 50c by Nyback's plus the actual cost by phone or wire to the town or country to which you are sending the flowers.

If you place your order in ample time for a letter to reach its destination you will SAVE the cost of transmission.

Because this is a purchase from another florist, you are asked to pay cash. However, upon approved credit by us, we can charge them to you until the 10th of the following month.
