A Word Tale or
Tail? By Rose Mae

This is the (tail, tale) of two bears named Teddy and Molly. (Won, one) day they went for a (nail, sale) in a bright (read, red) washtub. At first all was quiet and calm. But soon, (alas, a lass), the wind began to blow and the tub began to tip. Water started to (pore, pour) in, and Molly's (feat, feet) got all wet. "Help! help!" they called, but there was no help in (sight, site) anywhere.

At last the wind (stopped, stooped) and the sky began to clear. They sailed quickly for home and got there safely. "That was a lot of fun," said Molly to Teddy, "but I don't think I'd want to go (through, threw) it again."
