SPRING TONIC — Bright red stalks of rhubarb are on the market now, coming from warmer climes than Klamath Falls. Here is a delicious combination of frozen strawberries or fresh ones if the budget allows, and rhubarb, to make a light, delicious chiffon pie.

DELIGHT TO TASTE THIS COMBINATION

Blessings on the woman who first combined rhubarb and strawberries! Was it an inspired idea, or did she, from necessity, eke out a dearth of strawberries with the more plentiful rhubarb... or vice versa? To whomever or whatever we owe the original idea, we can be thankful that with frozen strawberries and rhubarb available the year around, we can enjoy this taste treat whenever we so desire. But primarily it makes a spring dessert, and here is a recipe for a

STRAWBERRY - RHUBARB CHIFFON PIE

1 package (1 pound) frozen rhubarb
1/4 cup water
2 tablespoons sugar
1 regular size package (3 ounces) strawberry flavor gelatin
1 package (10 ounces) frozen strawberry halves

1/2 cup whipping cream
1 baked 9-inch pie shell, cooled
Place rhubarb, water, and sugar in saucepan. Simmer, uncovered, 5 to 10 minutes or until the large pieces of rhubarb can be broken up with a fork. Remove from heat. Add gelatin, stirring until it is dissolved. Add frozen block of strawberries, stirring until berries are separated. Then chill until thickened.
Whip the cream until it will hold stiff peaks. Fold into thickened fruit mixture. Pour into pie shell. Chill until set — about 3 hours. Garnish with additional whipped cream, if desired. Makes 8 servings.
