

Bethel 61

Bethel No. 61, International Order of Job's Daughters, held a regular meeting on Monday, April 15, at the Scottish Rite Temple, with Honored Queen Nancy McClure in charge.

Preceding the meeting, a potluck dinner in honor of the visitation of Julia Gildner, grand guardian of Oregon, was held at 6 p.m. with many members and guests present.

The meeting opened at 7:30 p.m. and election of delegates for the fall, was conducted with the following results: Sally Hanville, se-Grand Session on June 20, in Portland, was elected as first delegate, and Sharon Randall as second delegate.

Escorted and introduced was Patricia Bratton, honored queen of Bethel No. 6. Past guardians of Bethel No. 61 introduced were Virginia McClure, Kitty Hanville and past associate guardian, Larry Whytal. Present also for the evening was Clyde Brown, watchman of the shepherds, Naomi Shrine No. 5, and officers from Bethel No. 6, Sally Bratton, guide, and Susan Leaming, marshal.

Reports were given on the recent trip made to Bend, to the meeting of the Buddy Bethel. Fourteen girls made the trip and reported a wonderful visit with their "buddies."

Mrs. Helen McCracken, guardian, presented a gift on behalf of Naomi Shrine No. 5 to the Bethel, for their assistance the past year.

The ceremony of initiation was Susan Dippold and Joanne Sandmeyer.

The Bethel librarian, Linda Bailie, read a poem entitled, "April is Here."

The meeting closed with all members reminded of election for new officers to be held at the next meeting on May 6 at 7:30 p.m.

Eagles Aux. Wins Honors

The Klamath Falls Eagles Auxiliary won several honors at the April 28 regional meeting in Prineville attended by officers and members of the drill team and drum corps.

A certificate was presented to Bonnie Slaughter for the most outstanding madam conductress.

The drill team tied with the Bend Auxiliary drill team and both received trophies. Venetta Dorrell, Klamath Falls captain, accepted the honor for her team. Klamath Falls was also presented a trophy for having the largest delegation from out of town present for the regional meet.

Praise came from regional delegations to the local drum corps for its fine exhibition. Stella Persell is the chairman and instructor for the group.

The Eagles Auxiliary met in regular session on April 26 at which time Alice Nyhart, Faye Spicher, Louise Tucker, June Parnell, Dottie Reed and Merle Baker were initiated.

Nominated for officers for the coming year are Ellen Shoun, madam president; Darthen George, madam vice president; Bonnie Slaughter, madam chaplain; Erma GeRue, madam conductress; Ovidia Sterland, madam secretary; Sarah Ness, madam treasurer; Rose Woods, madam inside guard; Sadie Wallace, madam outside guard; Florence Bryan, Ruth Baker and Mathilda Kurth, trustees.

Election of officers will take place May 10.

Refreshments were served by the drill team.

In addition, at the next meeting on May 10, mothers will be especially honored. Gifts will go to the oldest mother, youngest mother and mother of the most children.

The Eagles Auxiliary Social Club will meet May 8 in the lower FOF Hall for a noon potluck luncheon. Committee for the day is comprised of Olive Gregory, Helen Chapman and Lona Jerrard.

Helping Hand Society Meets

MALIN — Nineteen members of the Helping Hand Society met April 17 at the home of Mrs. Lester Schreiner. Mrs. Harold Kniskern, president, read greetings from a former member, Mrs. Kenneth Huffman, now residing in Burns.

The society voted to send plants to several shut-ins of the community.

Mrs. Emma Wilson presented to the group a 1962 Malin High School yearbook, which was dedicated to the Helping Hand Society. Mrs. Beas Ann Smith will be the next hostess.

Average natural gas wells today are over 4,000 feet deep.

IN PARADE — Betty Jo Tesch, freshman coed at Eastern Washington State College, is an honorary cadet captain of the Sponsors Corps, women's auxiliary of the college's Reserve Officers Training Corps detachment. As such, she marched in the parade during the Wenatchee Apple Blossom Festival last weekend.
