Vickie Liskey Is Married

Vickie Lea Liskey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Liskey of Merrill exchanged wedding vows with Delane Frank Oliva, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Oliva of Malin, on Saturday, April 27.

The pretty ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hooper on Moyina Way in Klamath Falls.

A lavender and white decor was carried out with baskets of stock and chrysanthemums on low chests and floor candelabra with white tapers forming a background for the double ring ceremony officiated by the Rev. Lloyd Henderson of the Merrill Presbyterian Church.

Jack Liskey gave his daughter in marriage. She wore the wedding gown of her aunt, Mrs. Keith Gentry, which was fashioned of white satin and chiffon with lace accent along the bodice. A crown of seed pearls in flower design held the shoulder veil of white net. The bridal bouquet of white roses and carnations was backed with lavender net.

Karen Gentry, this city, was maid of honor for her cousin. Her frock was of lavender satin matched with satin slippers. Her headpiece was a white flower and brief veil. She carried lavender and white flowers.

Jerry Micka of Malin was best man.

Mrs. Liskey chose a white suit with blue accessories for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Oliva wore a navy blue shantung outfit with white accessories.

An informal reception took place following the 1:30 p.m. ceremony. The white tiered cake was served by the bride's grandmother, Mrs. John Liskey, and the mothers of the bridal pair served coffee and punch.

The new Mrs. Oliva wore a coral suit with white accessories as a going away outfit. The newlyweds will establish their first home in Bly.

Out-of-town guests at the ceremony included the bridegroom's sister, Norma Oliva, Reno, and his brother, Norman Oliva, Ontario, Ore.

Mr. and Mrs. Hooper entertained members of the wedding party at their home following the wedding rehearsal on Thursday evening.

Two showers honored the bride prior to her marriage. One was given by her aunt, Mrs. Keith Gentry on April 17, and the other was hosted by the bride's Merrill High School classmates on April 23 at the home of Carol Parnell.

Reunion Plans Made

Joining in the parade of summer reunions is the KUHS Class of '30, who have chosen June 22 as the date for a big gala dinner dance at the Winema Hotel.

The committee in charge has received good response from a large number of former classmates. However, there is a list of names that they desire any known information.

SAVORY SPRING SALAD

Fresh salads are refreshing springtime favorites. Cut a California avocado lengthwise into halves; remove seed and skin and cut fruit into cubes. Toss with cucumber cubes and green onion slices in dairy sour cream seasoned to taste with vinegar, salt, pepper, Tabasco and dill seed. Garnish with tomato wedges.

Recital Is Presented

The music room of the Malin High School was crowded with admiring parents on Sunday, April 28, when the students of Mrs. Lucile Gray were presented in their annual piano recital.

First honors were given to Margaret Ann Blohm, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Phil Blohm, and to Sharleen Rupe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilmer Allers, each of Malin.

Second honor was awarded to Jere Gooding, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. DeMerritt, Malin.

Other students participating were Kathy Spolek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Spolek; Jan Halousek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Halousek and Patricia and Danny Byrne, son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Byrne, all of Tulelake. Other Malin students were Judy McCulley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed McCulley; Peggy Long, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long; Terry Lee Petrasek, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Petrasek, and Mrs. Lillian Craven. Also on the program were the three oldest children of Mr. and Mrs. Tim Wolfe, Sandra, Linda and Landy Wolfe.

A novelty number consisted of a double duet played by two brother and sister teams, Patty and Danny Byrne and Linda and Landy Wolfe. Mrs. Gray's students presented her with a bouquet of American Beauty roses, following the distribution of awards.

Parents of the students served refreshments in the home economics room.
