KITCHEN BRUSH-UP

Corners and spaces under cabinets, stoves or refrigerators make cleaning the kitchen floor a slight problem. You will find that brushes designed for other purposes can make the kitchen task easier. You won't have to get down on your hands and knees. For reaching under items or into difficult spots, try a long-handled brush designed for sweeping snow from cars.

If your hair feels dry, looks lusterless and/or ends are beginning to split, these are warning signs that you should do something about. Healthy hair has enough natural oil to help it keep its elasticity, while damaged hair lacks much of the natural oil. Hair oils and pomades will help keep hair glossy and form a protective film on hair shaft. Consult us before your next permanent, or often special cream or oil conditioning treatments may help prevent trouble and will ensure you a better and more lasting wave.

TAKE 'EM ALONG

If you're planning a trip outside the United States, take along several collapsible plastic clothes hangers. Most European hotels don't supply enough hangers for the traveling gal.

To apply liquid wax, dip a sponge in water, wring dry and pat between paper towels to soak up excess water. Wet sponges do a better job than dry ones.

If you're not acquainted with Houston Beauty Shop... we are conveniently located upstairs over the former Town Shop at Fifth and Main. Use the entrance around the corner on Fifth, while the downstairs remodeling is going on. Call us at TU 4-3216.

FASHION FLAIR

By United Press International
The back of the newest cardigan for teenage girls features a sketch of a handsome lad—with one eye that winks as the gal moves. The handsome lad on the back of the jacket comes off the production line with a thatch of black, blonde or red hair. The winking jacket (House of Yvonne) blinks via a gimmick eye (plastic). The eye seems to open and close as rays of light move over it.

High on the fashion curriculum next semester: "T" shirts for her, accessorized with a gay scarf and pin. Some models come in hip length and are worn as over-houses.

Creating a billowing softness for spring evenings, Pedro Rodriguez, Spanish designer, shaped yards of white organza into an evening coat. The floating coat topped a richly embroidered bell-shaped dress, completing an elegant ensemble.
