Early Day Malin Displays Are Shown

MALIN—Interesting exhibits of pioneer days, loaned by residents of the area, recalled "Early Day Malin" as the theme for the Malin Library open house on Saturday, April 27.

A special guest, Teresa McComb, early Malin librarian, attended the guest book for the signatures of 116 guests who viewed with interest early-day books, kitchen utensils, clothing and furniture, whose history was explained by Mrs. Art Evans, who was dressed in colorful Czech attire. The refreshment table was covered with gold tulle, caught up at intervals with tiny rosettes. For a centerpiece, Mrs. J. Walter Browning arranged yellow daffodils and white stock between yellow tapers.

Mrs. Lloyd Mock and Mrs. G. C. Blohm were in charge of refreshments.

Members of the library committee, Mrs. Clark Unruh, Mrs. Alan Taylor, Mrs. George Browning, LUNCHEON PREPARATION — Bright spring paper blossoms are fashioned by three members of the Klamath County Cow Belles for the group's annual spring luncheon to be held Wednesday, May 15, at Reames Country Club. Left to right are Mrs. D. O. Hyde, Mrs. Jack Nicol, decoration chairman, and Mrs. Bill Marshall, general chairman. At the luncheon, the club will announce and honor the Cow Belle Father of the Year for Klamath County. Cow Belles are urged to bring prospective members and guests to the luncheon which will be served at 12:30 p.m.

Mrs. Francis Kolkow and Mrs. T. A. DeMerritt, served as hostesses.

Presiding at the coffee and punch services during the affair were representatives of Malin organizations, Mrs. Paul McCulley,

Mrs. Joseph Boyle, Mrs. J. B. Conroy, Mrs. Ernest Gray, Mrs. J. Walter Browning, Mrs. Harold Kniskern, Mrs. Louis Kalina, Mrs. Walter Stastny, Mrs. Ethen Whitman, Mrs. Dick Derry, Mrs. William Hodge and Mrs. Stan Mc-

Clellan. Another special guest of the day was Mrs. Annie Worlow, early day resident of Malin and elementary school teacher, who now resides in Wagonfire.

Representing libraries of the Klamath Basin were Mrs. Howard Kellison, Bonanza; Mrs. Imogene Ralston, OTI; Mrs. Leo Roath, Tulelake; Mrs. Roy Whitlatch, Klamath Falls, and T. A. DeMerritt, Malin, both members of the Klamath County Library Board.

Groups Note Founders Day

MOUNT SHASTA—Xi Theta Tau and Omicron Upsilon sorority members celebrated Founder's Day of Beta Sigma Phi at a dinner at the Red House in Mount Shasta, on May 2. The dinner was preceded by a social hour at the home of Mrs. Aaron Richardson.

The occasion was the 32nd anniversary of the sorority's founding, in Abilene, Kans. There are now 7000 chapters with 150,000 members, and 14 countries represented. In traditional ceremonies the history of the local chapters was reviewed. New members received their first welcome to the chapter and other members taking part were chairman of the dinner, Mrs. Roland Brooks and Mrs. Everett Holecsek, with Mrs. Ray Marin, Mrs. Dino Marconi and Mrs. Arthur Adler assisting. Mrs. Adler is adviser for Omicron Upsilon and honorary member of Xi Theta Tau.

Girl of the year for Xi Theta Tau is Mrs. Holecsek and of Omicron Upsilon, Mrs. Betty Strickland. Each received a cup with Beta Sigma Phi scroll inscribed on it together with their name, as well as a heart charm for their sorority bracelets.
