Neighbors of Woodcraft met April 15 in the KC Hall for open installation and Woodcraft birthday party.

Installing officer Delores Polich was assisted by Erma Miller, Harriett Estes and Mildred Smith. Thelma Roller was installed as guardian neighbor. Her officers are Eleanor Cook, past guardian neighbor; Fran Hayes, senior guardian neighbor; Stella Dryden, clerk; Marie Steinseifer, banker; Elaine Cook, magician; Barbara Adams, adviser; Gerty Hugg, attendant; Harriett Estes, captain of the guard; Cecile Skeen, flag bearer; Violet Joplin, Maude Holmes and Evan Young, managers; Sylvia Tilton, corresponding secretary; Neva Hayes, inner sentinel; Ruth Novotny, outer sentinel.

Guardian Neighbor Thelma Roller was escorted to the campfire by her husband where she was presented red roses and the gavel by Lorene Robinson and Juanita Carlson.

Elaine Cook sang a solo and Barbara Adams sang "The Welcome Song."

Other program numbers were a violin solo by Patty Williams, accompanied by Terry Currie, a BETROTHED — Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Banasco, Lakeview, announce the betrothal and wedding in June of their daughter, Jolene Anne, to Daniel R. Segel. The bride-to-be is a graduate of University of Oregon where she was a member of Kappa Alpha Theta, social sorority, and of Kwama and Phi Theta Upsilon, service honoraries. Presently she teaches at Sunset High School in Beaverton. The future bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Segel, Portland, is also a graduate of U of O and is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega. He is associated with the realty business in Beaverton.

piano solo by Dennis Collman and a reading by Jennie Charles.

Officers were conducted to the campfire to receive gifts from the outgoing guardian neighbor, Eleanor Cook. Officers of the guard were also given gifts from the captain of the guards.

Delores Polich was escorted to the campfire by the attendant and was presented her past guardian neighbor pin by June Zumwalt and a gift by Vivian Floetke.

A special guest was Mabel Matheny, Eugene, district manager, who gave a brief talk.

AAUW Slate Is Announced

Officers elected at the Oregon State Division convention of the American Association of University Women were Mrs. W. M. Sanzenbacher of Lake Oswego, president; Dr. Betty Lou Dunlop of Ashland, vice president; Mrs. W. A. Graupmann of Albany, recording secretary; Mrs. A. Duane Pinkerton of Milwaukie, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. M. C. Kienle of McMinnville, treasurer.

Attending the convention from Klamath Falls were Mrs. Richard C. Newman and Mrs. Philip Blohm. Mrs. Newman won honorable mention at the art exhibit held at the convention. Judges were Rolf Klep of Gearhart and Glenn Daugherty of Portland.

New mink coats are the color of the woman who doesn't own one—green! It takes lots of long-green to buy a green mink coat. The price: estimated at $40,000—twice as much as their weight in gold, says the Emba Mink Breeders' Association.

Tea Observes Library Day

BONANZA — A lovely tea was given at Bonanza Library the afternoon of April 30, honoring Library Day.

Mrs. Fred Rueck was in charge of the program and Mrs. Cecil Haley arranged the daisies and daffodils on the tables and mantle.

Mrs. Ernest Givan gave two interesting book reports, "The Pavilion of Women" by Pearl Buck and "We, The Living" by Amy Rand.

Jean Fernlund, Linda McFall and Linda Fernlund gave humorous readings.

Women from Klamath Falls, Malin and Bonanza attended.

Brush hair should be! It's a bore and certainly not a pleasure to look at. Now, without drastic steps, you can add brilliance and remove it all with the new color formulas that go on after washing. Ask our professional hair stylists to suggest the color that would be most becoming to you and let her add new highlights to your crowning glory.
