EMOTIONS EXPRESSED DURING TRACK MEET SATURDAY — Various emotional and straining expressions were expressed Saturday during the District 5-B track and field meet at Modoc Field. At far left Gilchrist's Conley Elms seems to be drawing back his fist and looking toward a giant as to say, "here it comes." He won the shot put and discus events. Second from left is Bonanza's Robby Steber who appears to be a bit disgusted with his feat and says "Oh, no." He was second to Elms. The third photo shows only the top of the head of Gilchrist's Jim Lynes who was participating in the javelin. With head bowed, he appears to be saying, "Woe is me." He didn't place and woe was to him. At far right is Bonanza's Monte Burnett during a heat of the 100-yard dash. His expression seemed more of determination than anything else. He was second in the 100.

Tice Drops First Game In Tourney

Larry Tice, KUHS entry in the State Tennis Tournament held on the courts at Oregon State University, lost out in the opening round when he was defeated by second-seeded Charles Alloo of Wilson High by scores of 6-1 and 6-4.

Alloo went through to the finals where he was defeated by Dave Shufford of North Salem 6-3 and 6-0.

Tice won his opening game in the consolation round when he turned back John Erickson of Beaverton in a hard match 6-2; 4-6 and 6-0. However, he lost in the second round of the consolation when he was defeated by John Kerney of Hillsboro 6-3 and 6-0.

Wilson High of Portland won the team event in the tournament while North Salem and Medford tied for second honors. The Medford doubles team of Mike Saumes and Gary Highland defeated C. Harris and E. Newhall of Wilson for the honors in that division.

Tests Scheduled To Find Cause In Lipscomb Death

BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI)— Police Capt. Joseph Carroll said Saturday night that the companion of Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb has told him that Lipscomb took a shot of heroin several hours before his death.

Lipscomb, 31, a 290-pound pro football star famed for his strength, died early Friday after being found unconscious in the home of a friend, Timothy Black. A medical examiner said the "presumption" was that Lipscomb died as a result of "an overdose of narcotics."

Carroll, of the narcotics squad, said Saturday night Black told him he bought a "bag" of heroin for $12 at about 4 a.m. Friday.

"Black said they went back to Black's house on Brice Street and cooked up the heroin, splitting it evenly," Carroll said. "Black said Lipscomb then shot his into his own arm."

Carroll said Black told him he then prepared to take his own shot, "but the needle stuck and he had to take a wire to open it."

"When he was ready," Carroll said, "Black said he noticed Lipscomb was drooling from the mouth and was unconscious. Black said he slapped him in an attempt to wake him up."

Carroll said Black also tried to arouse Lipscomb by packing him in ice.

The police captain said Black and another man, whom he did not identify, then tried to revive the Pittsburgh Steelers star by dissolving table salt in water and shooting it into Big Daddy's arm. It was "an hour or so" after that, Carroll said Black told him, that Black called police.

Lipscomb was unconscious and breathing heavily when the ambulance arrived. He was pronounced dead on arrival at Lutheran Hospital.

Carroll said Black has been arrested on charges of possession of narcotics paraphernalia, that is, the syringe.

Friends of Lipscomb, including former pro football star Claude (Buddy) Young and officials of the Pittsburgh team, expressed doubt that Lipscomb would have anything to do with narcotics, especially because he disliked "needles."

Big Daddy's body was reported to bear puncture marks above veins on both arms. A syringe, described as "makeshift" by Dr. Breitenaacker, was found in a waste basket in the kitchen. A preliminary test of the syringe for narcotics proved negative but further tests are being conducted.

Former Teammates Awed

Lipscomb's body was identified by several of his former Colt teammates, none of whom could believe he ever used narcotics.

Dr. Ray Sweeney, the Steelers' trainer, said at his home in Portland, Maine, that Lipscomb even refused to take novocaine once when he was in severe pain with a shoulder injury.

Sweeney quoted Lipscomb as saying:

"I never had a needle in my life. I'd rather play hurt than take anything."

The Pittsburgh trainer said, "I think it's impossible that Big Daddy was involved with narcotics. Over the past two years I've been very close to him. I just don't believe this is possible."

A National Football League spokesman said League Commissioner Pete Rozelle was watching for any proof that Lipscomb might have been involved with narcotics.

"If it is proven, naturally we will look into the matter further," the spokesman said.

The amiable, fun-loving Lipscomb, one of the few men ever to achieve pro football fame even though he never attended college, died after "partying" Thursday night, according to Timothy Black a friend.

Black, in whose apartment Big Daddy was found, told police that he and Lipscomb took two girls to a party Thursday night. After taking the girls home, they headed for Black's apartment but before they arrived there, Black said he decided to stop at a local lunchroom for something to eat.

Lipscomb went on alone to the apartment, the police quoted Black. When Black reached his apartment a short time later, he said he found the football player unconscious.

Casey Call Pulls Deluge

NEW YORK (UPI) — Manager Casey Stengel's advice to the youth of America to try out for the New York Mets brought a deluge of telephone calls and a club promise Saturday to give the youngsters a crack at big time baseball.

Stengel, in a post-game televised interview after the Mets defeated the Cincinnati Reds, 3-2, Friday, said he was in need of fellows like 18-year-old Ed Kranepool.

The Polo Grounds' switchboard was immediately swamped with calls. At least 100 were recorded and it was presumed many more couldn't get through because of busy lines.

Met officials asked young players to write the club and state their qualifications. The team will hold tryouts in the Polo Grounds during July and August when the Mets are on the road.

Mail probably will be heavy Monday, the club said, because youngsters who failed to reach the park by phone are expected to write-in for instructions.

Wenatchee at Tri-City

By United Press International

For a time there Friday night, it looked like those Eugene Emeralds really had something going.

The Emeralds hopped off to a 5-0 lead over Lewiston in their half of the first inning in Northwest League play. Unfortunately, Lewiston scored six runs in its half of the frame and went on to nip Eugene 10-9. The Emeralds are winless after 10 league games.

In other games, Yakima nicked Salem 6-5 in 10 innings and Tri-City took Wenatchee 6-5 in 11 innings.

Woody Huyke doubled for Lewiston in the eighth and scored when the Eugene shortstop bobbled a smash by Louis Rodriguez for the eventual winning run. Dale Rohde of Eugene had a two-run homer in the eighth.

Yakima edged Salem in the 11th when Vince Ferguson walked, moved up on a sacrifice and scored on Marcial Allen's single.

Tri-City got four runs in its half of the 10th to take Wenatchee after the Chiefs had got three in the top of the inning. Del Bates drove in the tying run of the inning with a double and Ernie Foli singled in the winning marker.

Gilchrist Menaces Leader

Bonanza's high-powered spike troops captured the annual Class 5-B track meet at Modoc Field Saturday but got a scare thrown into them by the fired-up Gilchrist Grizzlies.

The Antlers won the meet with 136 points. Gilchrist came in second with 106 points to finish only 30 points behind. They were 40 points behind in the similar meet last week.

Chiloquin poured on the steam to take third place with 73 points. Then came Malin with 48, Prospect with 24, Bly with 20, Merrill 17 and Paisley with 14.

Most events were according to the form sheet. The favorites won in most all the events with Bonanza's Bob Rice and Monte Burnett taking the lion's share of honors.

Rice won the 100-yard dash and 220 in times of 10.1 and 22.7 to score his double. Burnett was right on Rice's heels in the 100 for second place and he won the 440-yard dash with a clocking of 52.5.

Other Bonanza firsts went to Ricky Steber in the 120-yard high hurdles with a good time of 15.7. Gilchrist's Matt Koski was the second place finisher in that event. It was his best meet time this year. He also finished second in the half mile to teammate James Brotherton who was clocked at 2:12.6. Steber also took the low hurdles with a timing of 21.85. The Antler sophomore finished just in front of Gilchrist's Jack Hazlewood.

Steber also got a state track meet berth in the high jump when he was second in the high jump behind Chiloquin's Tony DiUlio. The final Bonanza victory came in the 880-yard relay where the Antlers clipped off a 1:37.4 victory with Rice and Burnett leading the charge. Malin was second.

Gilchrist started out with a win when big Conley Elms copped the shot put with a heave of 42-11¾.

Robby Steber of Bonanza was second. He also won the discus with a toss of 124-9. Teammate David Sporrer was second.

Chiloquin finished one-two in the javelin as expected. Tony Wilder won the event with his best fling of the season of 153-3. Al DeBortoli was second. Chiloquin's Winslow Whitecrain was second in the mile run for a berth at state. Kim Hale also gained a place at state with a second in the 440 behind Burnett.

Total Points: Bonanza, 136; Gilchrist, 106; Chiloquin, 73; Malin, 48; Prospect, 24; Bly, 20; Merrill, 17; Paisley, 14.

Jim Lynes got a second in the 220-yard dash for the Grizzlies. Dan Hoff also got a second in the broad jump which was won by Malin's Dale Parrish with a leap of 18-10½.

Prospect got its only first in the pole vault where Wayne Millard topped the vaulters with an 11-2 leap. Bob Bauer of Malin was second.

The first two places in each event gained a state meet berth for the preliminaries next week.
