

White Sox Retain American Lead; Giants Down Pirates To Increase Lead

Herbert Hurls Fourth Shutout

By United Press International

Ray Herbert wants to rewrite baseball's official scoring rules but first he may rewrite the American League's pitching records.

The 23-year-old Chicago White Sox right-hander insists some of the rules governing pitchers' earned run averages "don't make sense" and adds, "my earned run average is my bread and butter."

In the meantime, however, he's taken the matter into his own hands with a string of four consecutive shutouts and a 1.80 ERA that makes him the pitching sensation of the year. He needs just one more shutout to equal the major league mark of five in a row set by Doc White of the White Sox in 1904. His current string is the longest run of consecutive shutouts in the major leagues since 1909.

Hold First Place

The curve-and-control artist—he's yielded only eight walks while striking out 23 batters in 50 innings—beat the Detroit Tigers 3-0 Tuesday night enabling the White Sox to retain their one-game first-place lead. He's allowed a total of 15 hits in scoring consecutive shutouts over the Tigers, New York Yankees, Washington Senators and Baltimore Orioles. His first victory of the season—back on April 17—was a three-hit shutout over the Kansas City Athletics.

Herbert has been hit pretty hard in other starts but even so has allowed only 34 hits and 10 earned runs this year.

Jim Landis provided Herbert and the White Sox with all the runs they needed with a leadoff homer in the first inning and a two-run single in the fifth. The unlucky loser was Jim Bunning, who allowed three hits and struck out eight but suffered his fourth defeat.

The Yankees shamed the Minnesota Twins 2-1, the Athletics topped the Cleveland Indians 5-2, and the Orioles beat the Senators 6-1 in other AL games. Los Angeles at Boston was rained out.

In the National League, the Milwaukee Braves edged the St. Louis Cardinals 4-3, the Chicago Cubs beat the Cincinnati Reds 2-1, the Houston Colts downed the New York Mets 4-3, the San Francisco Giants topped the Pittsburgh Pirates 3-1, and the Philadelphia Phillies beat the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-1.

Whitey Ford pitched a five-hitter and won his fourth game of the season when Hector Lopez's eighth-inning single snapped a 1-1 tie. Ford fanned eight and walked two while loser Dick Stigman was tapped for six hits. It was the ninth loss in 12 games for the Twins.

Jerry Lumpe's two-run double and run-producing singles by Chuck Essegian and Bobby Del Greco sent the Athletics off to a 4-0 lead in the first inning and Ed Rakow protected it with a six-hitter for his fourth victory. Jack Kralick suffered his fifth loss against one win.

Robin Roberts, comeback player of the year in 1962, finally posted his first 1963 triumph with a four-hitter. Jim Gentile and John Powell homered to lead the 10-hit Orioles attack that dealt Dave Stenhouse his third defeat. Larry Osborne homered for the Senators.

Although it cost them twice as much for the satisfaction, the San Francisco Giants could claim today they were one up on the Los Angeles Dodgers in the expensive game of "bonusmanship."

The battle was fought on the mound at Tacoma's Cheney Stadium Tuesday night where San Francisco bonus baby Garibaldi outduelled Joe Moeller, the Dodgers' blue chip investment, in Tacoma's 5-2 win over Spokane.

The 21-year-old Garibaldi, who pitched the distance for his fourth victory and scattered eight hits, got a reported $150,000 for putting his name on a San Francisco contract.

Moeller got a piddling (by comparison) $75,000 for signing with Los Angeles, which may be the reason he decided to retire after six innings.

Garibaldi had only one lapse, in the seventh, when he gave up four successive singles and both Spokane runs. But, by then, his teammates had cushioned him to a 5-0 lead and he coasted the rest of the way.

In other PCL action, the Salt Lake City Bees nudged the Dallas-Fort Worth Rangers 3-2, the San Diego Padres rode the strong pitching of Sammy Ellis to a 6-1 victory over the Seattle Rainiers and Denver downed Oklahoma City 5-4 despite the hitting heroics of Carroll Hardy.

The Portland-Hawaii contest was washed out by heavy thunderstorms in Honolulu.

Freddie Burdette turned in a fine relief stint for Salt Lake City to keep the Bees percentage points ahead of San Diego in the Southern Division pennant chase.

Burdette was called to the mound in the sixth after Dallas-Fort Worth had put two runners on base with only one out. The strong right-hander blanked the Rangers the rest of the way to preserve starter Wayne Carlander's third victory without a loss.

The defeat was the Rangers' first in eight games at home this season.

Ellis fanned 10 Rainiers batters in pitching the Padres to victory. His big support at the plate came from Mel Queen who drove in three runs with two singles.

San Diego's Deron Johnson extended league leadership in home runs by smashing his 11th four-bagger of the season in the fifth with the bases empty.

Hardy drove in all four Oklahoma City runs with two singles, a double and homer. But his efforts were not enough.

His home run came with a runner on in the ninth and pulled the 8ers to within one run of evening the score. But reliever Clair Hickman got Dave Roberts to fly out deep to right field to end the rally and the game.

Corky Withrow and Jim McKnight belted bases-empty home runs to spark Denver's nine-hit attack.

Braves' Bragan Gets New Pact

By United Press International

That new contract looks mighty good to Milwaukee manager Bobby Bragan, but old Warren Spahn looks even better to him.

Bragan was signed through the 1964 season shortly before Tuesday night's game with the St. Louis Cardinals and what should have been a festive occasion nearly turned into a nightmare.

Stan Musial threw a damper on the proceedings with a wicked second-inning liner that struck Spahn in the pit of the stomach and knocked him to the ground.

Acting instinctively, the 42-year-old Milwaukee southpaw groped for the ball, came up with it and threw out Musial but then fell back on the ground.

The game was delayed for several minutes before Spahn finally got up and went on to pitch the Braves to a 4-3 victory that snapped their three-game losing streak. The victory was Spahn's fifth in seven decisions.

Spahn was touched for 11 hits, including a homer by Julian Javier, but he was in front from the third inning on and personally singled home what proved to be the winning run in the seventh off loser Bob Gibson.

Giants Down Pirates
The San Francisco Giants lengthened their National League lead to 1 1/2 games with a 3-1 victory over the Pittsburgh Pirates, the Houston Colts shaded the New York Mets 4-3 for their sixth straight, the Philadelphia Phillies downed the Los Angeles Dodgers 5-1, and the Chicago Cubs ended a four-game losing streak with a

Hundreds Expected At Funeral

DETROIT (UPI) — A crowd of more than 500 was expected to attend the funeral today of football star Gene (Big Daddy) Lipscomb.

Lipscomb, a native of Detroit who went on to his greatest fame with the Baltimore Colts before being traded to the Pittsburgh Steelers, died last Friday in Baltimore from an apparent overdose of narcotics.

Flowers sent by all of the National Football League's clubs were crowded around his casket at a local funeral home. Many of his former teammates and opponents were in town for the funeral.

Lipscomb was one of the few players who were able to make the grade in the National Football League without ever having played college ball.

The huge 290-pound defensive ace was discovered by the Los Angeles Rams while he was playing with the Camp Pendleton Marines.

But Lipscomb didn't become a star until after the Baltimore Colts picked him up in 1956. He became noted as the game's finest defensive tackle in 1958 and '59 when the Colts won two straight NFL crowns.

He was traded to the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1961 and helped the team finish second in the Eastern Division last year.

Idaho Stops Oregon, 3-2
MOSCOW, Idaho (UPI) — The Idaho Vandals cut short an Oregon rally in the final inning for a 3-2 Northern Division baseball victory over the Ducks Tuesday.

The loss gave second-place Oregon a 6-3 record. Defending champion Oregon State leads with 5-0.

The Ducks scored their two runs in the ninth inning. Eric Hardin singled. Ken Jensen tripled and Bob Porter singled to account for the losers' tallies.

Oregon has four more league contests left. Oregon State has eight remaining.
