ELEGANT FROZEN FRUIT SALAD

FRUIT SALAD PLAYS DUAL ROLE

Frozen fruit salad may well play a double role in meal planning. A sweet satisfying salad in addition to its name role as salad it may also be considered as a dessert.

The women who meet for dessert bridge, an afternoon devoted to charity or high tea, find this salad a wonderful choice for refreshments. It may also be a dramatic finale for a dinner party where it functions as both salad and dessert.

Though the salad is often served without dressing, a combination of equal parts of mayonnaise (or salad dressing) and slightly sweetened whipped cream enhances both its flavor and appearance.

FROZEN FRUIT SALAD ELEGANTE

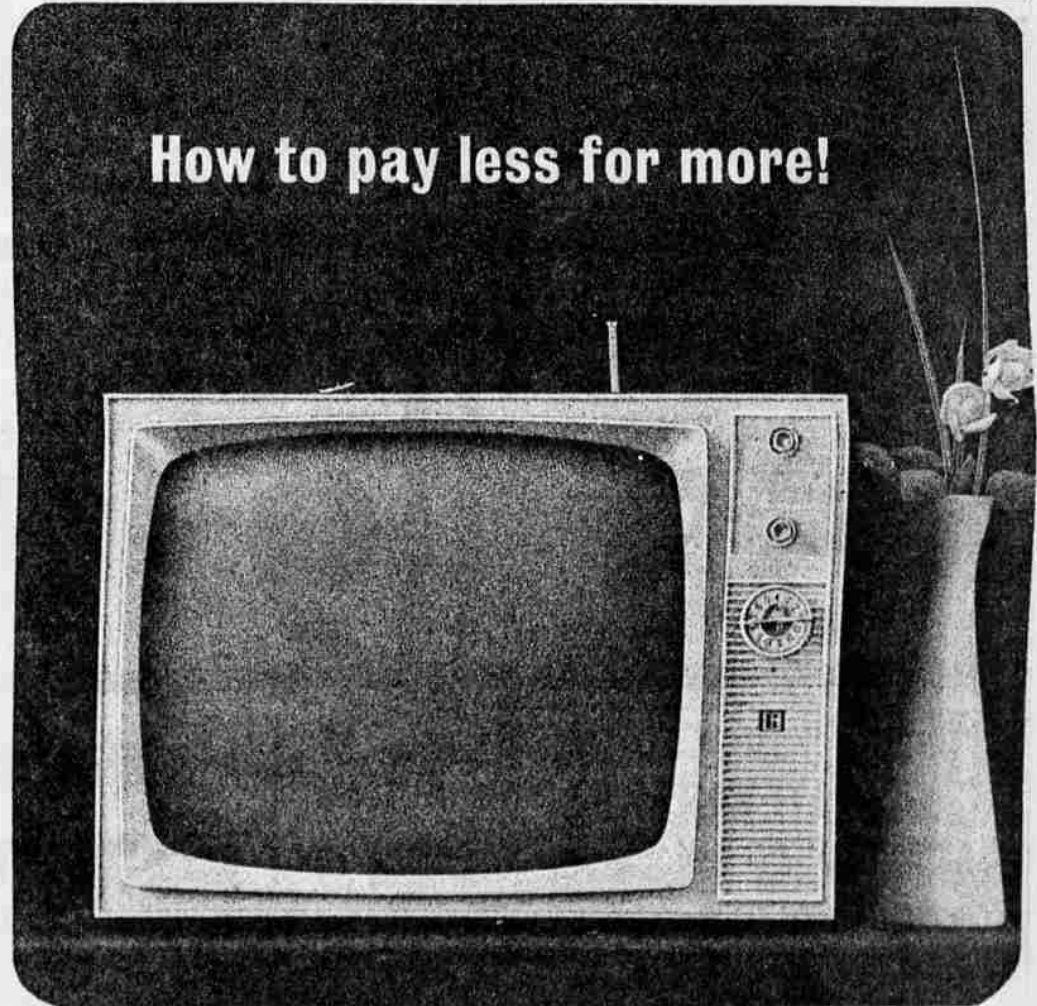

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 cup sugar
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
2 cups milk

2 eggs
2 egg yolks
1/4 cup grated orange rind
1 8-oz. package cream cheese
2 cups orange sections
1/2 cup sliced banana
2 1/2 cups canned pineapple chunks, drained
Watercress
Orange sections
Banana slices
Cherries

Mix gelatin, sugar and salt.

Scald milk; stir into gelatin mixture. Beat eggs and egg yolks; blend with milk mixture. Cook over hot water, stirring constantly until mixture thickens and coats spoon. Remove from heat; cool; add orange rind. Beat cream cheese until creamy, gradually add milk mixture beating until smooth. Fold in orange, banana and pineapple. Pour into deep refrigerator tray. Freeze firm. Unmold on watercress. Garnish with orange, banana and cherries. Makes six servings.
