TO EXTEND PROBE

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The House government information subcommittee will resume its "managed news" investigation Tuesday and broaden it to include news coverage "problems" in Viet Nam.

Chairman John E. Moss, D-Calif., said Wednesday the subcommittee would investigate complaints that a Defense Department "space agency" directive has resulted in questionable withholding of information from the public about U.S. and foreign space activities.

Moss said subsequent hearings would include further testimony on information problems resulting from the Cuban crisis as well as the Viet Nam situation.
