

Forage Study Plans Talked

FORT ROCK—Don Hedrick of Oregon State University and Bill Moser, Lake County extension agent, met here May 10 with a local rancher, R. A. "Ruben" Long, to initiate the next step in a forage utilization study.

The purpose of the study is to determine what might be the best method of utilizing created wheat grass. The 46-acre tract on Long's Bureau of Land Management grazing allotment is divided into four equal pastures. Six heifers have been placed in each of two pastures.

Around the first of June, a new pattern will be established, depending on the remaining feed supply and the study plan. The experiment will include feasibility of two periods of use.

The animals were weighed before their assignment to the tracts and will be again weighed at each change in the study.

Study plans were made by Hedrick about three years ago. Following the heeding of the brush came the seeding. Planting included a legume which failed to grow. It is still undecided whether to try to re-establish a legume. Spraying of sagebrush followed re-growth, and fencing was a necessity. Last came the cross fencing to establish four 12-acre sites.

Taking part in the study at various stages have been Hedrick, Moser, and Oris Budd, Lake County extension agents; Bill Currier, then representing the U.S. Forest Service; Everett Green and Jack Gillette, S. 11 Conservation Service technicians, and BLM range specialists.

All agencies have assisted with materials or equipment for the cooperative study.

Starmaker's Pick Dates

MOUNT SHASTA—May 24-25 are the dates set for the Mount Shasta Starmaker's presentation of "The Tender Trap," to be shown in the Mount Shasta High School auditorium at 8 p.m. each night.

It is a comedy dealing with Charlie, who is enjoying himself in New York City; the four girls in his life; and his married friend, Joe, who goes to New York to attempt a somewhat dubious business deal. The story comically exposes the activities of a typical bachelor in New York City and the wishful activities of Joe. It is authored by Max Shulman and Robert Paul Smith.

Charlie is played by Donald Ratley; Joe by Robert Summers; Sylvia, Susan Robins; Julie, Jeannie Jackson; Poppy, Deanna Starkey; Jessica, Carol Meeks; Earl, Jim Wilson; and Sol, Herb Chuda. Rehearsals have been going on for the past two months and will be held every night next week at the high school. Most cast members have been in other productions by the Starmakers.

"The Tender Trap" is under the direction of Mrs. Dave Peterson, who directed a previous successful production, "Anniversary Waltz."

Reserved seat tickets are $1 and may be purchased at Marconi's Market or by writing Box 1171, Mount Shasta.

Classes Set For Drivers

MOUNT SHASTA—Carl P. Hoberg, superintendent of the Siskiyou Union High School, announced that seven instructors will teach driver-training classes eight hours each day, seven days a week, in each of the six school districts this summer.

The instructors and dates of operation are Lyle Chambers and Richard Gaskell, June 10-16; Butte Valley, Robert Hokanson, July 20-Aug. 11; Dorris, Vince Sempronio, July 8-Aug. 3; McCloud, Robert Burrell and John Harris, June 10-16.

Hoberg said at the end of summer school, there will be make-up classes for students who were unable to enroll in the regularly scheduled classes because of conflicting dates.

Firms supplying automobiles for the training classes are Dodge and West, Thomas Dodge Agency, Roddy Motors, Malory Chevrolet, and the Magnus Agency.

COMMITTEE COMPROMISES

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A House Senate conference committee Friday agreed on a compromise $15.2 billion weapons authorization bill to provide equipment for the armed forces.

The figure is $35 million less than the total the administration asked, but provides funds for some items which the Pentagon did not request, including B57F million for the controversial B57F warplane, which the Defense Department is not expected to spend.
