At a prior meeting at the home of Mrs. Roscoe Lilly, the Klamath Saddle Club observed its 18th anniversary. New officers were also elected at this time. They are shown above, left to right, Mrs. S. M. Harrington, vice president; Mrs. Marshall Poole, president; Mrs. John Negrevski, secretary, and Mrs. Delbert Summers, treasurer.

In keeping with the Klamath Saddle Club's tradition of honoring its outgoing officers, a dinner dance was staged recently in the Round Table Room of the Winema Hotel with arrangements made by Mrs. Kenneth Hill and Mrs. John Negrevski. Honored guests were the past officers shown above, left to right, Mrs. S. M. Harrington, treasurer; Mrs. Dan Emrick, secretary; Mrs. Charles Read, vice president, and Mrs. Bob Colwell, president.

Also at this annual affair the outstanding club member of the year is chosen. At left, Mrs. Lyle Fowler receives the handsome trophy of this honor from last year's winner, Mrs. Dale Mattoon, right.

In addition to the women pictured here and their husbands, other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ruge, Mr. and Mrs. Hank Ring, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Lilly, Mr. and Mrs. Cletus McMahon, Frances McNeely and Hazel McCloch.

Beta Sigma Phi Chapters Choose Girls Of The Year

Girl of the Year awards were given to a representative of each local chapter of Beta Sigma Phi at the annual banquet honoring Founder's Day, held this year in the Modoc Room of the Winema Hotel. Jones Moty was mistress of ceremonies.

Decorations for the Beta Sigma Phi banquet were in yellow and black, sorority colors. Silhouettes of women used as wall murals and on programs followed the theme, "The Torch Will Light The Way." In charge of party plans was the committee below, left to right, Jeanne Sikes, Paula Clinton, chairman, Betty Perrin, Marge Seutter, Marian Ackerman, Helen Galloway and Pat Lukes.
