Nile Club Hosts Queen

The clubrooms of the Winema Hotel were beautifully decorated with spring bouquets of daisies and candles in pastel colors for the official visit of the new queen of Zuleima Nile Club, who made her official visit to the Klamath Falls Nile Club on May 1.

President Emogene Jones introduced Marina Gardener, honored queen, who in turn introduced the following Temple officers: Princess Lucille Rice, Past Queen Esther Turpin, princess marshal; Princess Pearl Mureland, recorder, and Clearice Nichols, Princess Zuleima. In her address the new queen stressed the importance of the club's work in assisting the Shrine Hospital. She also thanked the club for the honors of the day and for those attending her installation.

Birthday prizes were won by Princess Lura Vincent and Princess Peggy Weisendanger. Special prizes went to Princess Lura Vincent, Princess Dulcie Motley and Princess Melvina Inchlaum. Princess Inez Rush, chairman for the day, introduced and thanked her very able committee. A very enjoyable program of Women's Wear Daily finds colors low-keyed and clear in children's spring fashions. Pink looks like the stand-out color. Also good: red, white, and blue combinations. Also: red, white, and black.
