Church Rites Unite Couple

In a double ring ceremony April 27 at Peace Memorial Presbyterian Church, Joann Musselman became the bride of Douglas Wilson. The Rev. Laing Sibbet officiated before an altar decorated with white gladioli and blue daisies.

The bride is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo E. Madden and was given in marriage by her grandfather.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wilson of Oakridge are parents of the bridegroom, who is a student at OTI.

For the ceremony, the bride chose a short gown of white satin brocade with long sleeves and round neckline. A bow headpiece held the brief veil and she carried a cascade of white carnations.

Mrs. Robert E. Sweet, Merrill, matron of honor, was attired in pale blue nylon organza, matching veiled hat and carried a pink bouquet, accented with blue.

William McFetridge, Oakridge, was best man. Ushers were Perry Musselman, brother of the bride, this city, and James Bolinger, Estacada, Ore.

After the ceremony a reception was held in the Fireside Room of the church. Mrs. William Smith, Pleasanton, Calif., aunt of the bride, poured coffee and Pamela Smith, cousin, served punch. The three tiered white wedding cake was served by Mrs. William Schweiger.

Among the guests at the ceremony were the bride's great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. John Cotter, Sacramento.

Editor To Speak

William B. Sweetland, editor of the Herald and News, will speak to the Monday luncheon meeting of the American Association of University Women on May 20 at the Winema Hotel. His topic will be, "The Part the Newspaper Plays in Our Lives."

According to Mrs. Ivan Thompson, chairman of the Mass Media Study Group, results of a survey of 300 questionnaires sent out to various individuals showed that the newspaper is still the most widely used of the mass media which includes radio and television.

All interested persons are invited to attend the luncheon. Hostesses are Helen Morrison and Rose Owens. Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Stan Neitling at TU 2-3332.

Couple Wed In Corvallis

Lilla Davison became the bride of Lt. Robert E. Garner, Marine Corp., at a March 30 ceremony in Calvin Presbyterian Church, Corvallis. Mrs. Garner is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Davison of Boise. Lt. Garner's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Dowell Garner of Gilchrist.

The bride wore a floor length gown of white brocade tulle and carried a white orchid and stephanotis on a white ribbon. Her shoulder length veil was held in place with a small coronet of pearls.

The bridal attendants were Jacqueline Tunzai, Portland, maid of honor, and Carol Wickstrom, Bonners Ferry, Mary Terry, Downey, Calif., and Lesley Pearson, Portland, bridesmaids.

Best man was Lt. Les Williams, Marine Corp., and ushers were Alan Klockars, Stuart McAlpine and Jim Dodge, Phi Sigma Kappa fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

A wedding reception following the ceremony was held at the Alpha Gamma Delta house in Corvallis. Assisting were Mrs. Harry Garner, Gilchrist, Linda King, Boise, Nancy Warnstrom, Salt Lake City, and sorority sisters of the bride.

Lt. and Mrs. Garner are both graduates of Oregon State University. Lt. Garner is presently stationed at Camp Pendleton and the young couple is at home at 108 Corona Lane, San Clemente, Calif.
