

Seniors Are Feted

BONANZA—Senior students at Bonanza High School have been honored at two traditional events, the junior-senior prom and banquet.

The prom was held April 20 at the elementary school gymnasium with music by Pete Colley's Band.

Neil Tofell, chairman, and members of the junior class decorated in red, white and blue for the Bon Voyage party. The dance floor represented a ship and the stage, the upper deck against a background of water, sky and clouds. Flags, travel posters and a colored crystal ball in the horizon completed the effect.

Freshmen Diane Williams and Karen Schmoer served punch and Kathy Angel and Clyde Schmidt met guests and assisted with the coat room.

Guests of honor were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Dixon, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Freirich, Mr. and Mrs.

Kenneth Ketel, Mr. and Mrs. John Lundberg, Mr. and Mrs. James Morley, Mr. and Mrs. William Osborne, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Steber, Sandra Franklin and Larry Lund.

Chaperones were Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Seater, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Fernalund, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Nichols and Mr. and Mrs. John Harria.

On May 4 the junior and senior classes attended the banquet at Reames Country Club in Klamath Falls. The senior class color and flower, lavender and the orchid, were used for decoration. Individual pipstern placecard figures depicted activities of the senior members.

Master of ceremonies was Fred Dearborn, who gave the welcoming speech with response by Wayne Lahoda.

Guest speaker was Dr. Cliff Robinson, Principal Charles Steber gave a brief farewell talk.

CZECH CLUB MEETS

MALIN — Mrs. Anna Polivka entertained the Czech Ladies Club on May 2. Libby Sostak was a guest. Birthday congratulations were extended to Martha Brothnek and Amelia Cacka. Games were played with prizes going to Rose Baley, Mildred Rajnus, Blanche Oliva and Libby Sostak.

FOR SUPER SUPPERS

Extra touches at the supper table make dining more gracious. Something as simple as folding napkins like peaked hats and placing them at attention on each plate breaks the routine approach to the meal.

The blessing was given by Benny Brown; the class prophecy by Jean Fernalund, and the class will by James Brotherton.

Twenty one seniors and 24 juniors were present. Other guests included Mrs. Charles Steber, Mrs. Cliff Robinson, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Reid, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Dearborn, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse McFall, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Morley, Mr. and Mrs. John Lundberg, Mr. and Mrs. Baldwin, Sandra Franklin, and Mrs. Bob Freirich, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ketel, Mrs. Flor William Osborne and Larry Lund.

Treat yourself to a Dutch Treat! It's a hairdo—short, but with enough length to curve under at the back and sides.

Actress Scheduled

DUNSMUIR — Muriel Dusel, Bridge Bay and will play important roles in the season's present previews of the 1963 summer season at Bridge Bay as a program feature at the luncheon meeting of the Dunsmuir's Women's Club, Tuesday, May 21, at the Travelers Hotel.

Mrs. John Alford, a co-owner of Bridge Bay theatre, will also be a guest at the 12:30 luncheon.

BUSY THREESOME — These Merrill women, left to right, Darlene Turner-Hachenberg, Velma Fox O'Neil and Myrle Dillon Rippy, have worked hard for many weeks contacting former classmates of Merrill High School who were graduated in the class of '53. Consequently, plans are going well for the first class reunion scheduled for Aug. 3 and 4, a banquet and family picnic and informal gatherings. Reservations have been made for persons living as far away as Michigan and Mississippi. The three co-chairmen have invited class members to contact them for information concerning the reunion weekend affairs.
