Eleven Beauties Vie For Queen's Crown In Lake County Roundup Aug. 31, Sept. 1-2

LAKEVIEW—Eleven girls have entered the contest which will determine the queen and princesses of the court of the 44th annual Lake County Roundup, to be held Aug. 31, Sept. 1-2. Entry deadline for contestants was May 9, with organizations throughout the county selecting girls between the ages of 16 and 19 for sponsorship. Tryouts will be held June 8 at the fairgrounds, with the final determination to be made at a queen's dance in the evening. Three finalists will be chosen during the afternoon on a basis of horsemanship and personality, and that evening the number of dance tickets turned in for each girl will denote who the queen will be. The judges are Bob Hunt, Klamath Falls; Brunel Christensen, Lakeview, Calif.; and Dave Campbell, Bly.

The candidates include Diann Cundiff, daughter of Hilton and Elsie Cundiff of New Pine Creek who is sponsored by the East Side Grange. Judy Gray is the daughter of Glenn and Clara Gray of Lakeview and has for a sponsor Eagles Lodge and Auxiliary, Lera Jean Snider of Rte. 2, Lakeview, daughter of Jim and Barbara Snider, is sponsored by the Lake County Cow Belles. The Knights of Columbus are sponsoring Judi Sefer of Lakeview, daughter of Stan and Nellie Sefer. Deanna Johnston of Rte. 6, Lakeview, has for a sponsor Westside Grange. She is the daughter of Robert L. Jr. and Margaret Weir of Rte. 2, Lakeview. She is sponsored by the Lakeview Rotary Club. Marilyn Ward is a Fort Rock girl, the daughter of Maurice and Hazel Ward. She has co-sponsors, the Fort Rock Grange and the PTA. The Thomas Creek Grange is sponsoring Susan Hotchkiss, the daughter of Don and Maxine Hotchkiss of Rte. 6, Lakeview. Patricia Cory, daughter of Walter Cory of Lakeview, is sponsored by the Lakeview Business and Professional Women's Club. Alice Green, the daughter of David and Barbara Green of Paisley, is the choice of the Lake County Roping Club. Joyce Doreen Fenimore is the daughter of Clyde and Nancy Fenimore of Rte. 6, Lakeview and is sponsored by the Lakeview Emblem Club No. 356. The contest is directed by the Roundup and Tourist Committee of the Lake County Chamber of Commerce.

THE OWL HOOTS

By AL GEISS

Parents' Weekend on the Oregon Tech campus was a huge success with the weather cooperating by and large. Parents came from all parts of Oregon and Northern California with a mother from Minneapolis, winning the greatest-distance recognition. Parents also came from Seattle and Moses Lake, Wash.

Weekend activities began Friday noon with open house in the residence halls and instructional areas during the afternoon and Saturday morning. The noon barbecue on Saturday kicked off the scheduled events. At an afternoon assembly in the theatre President Purvine welcomed the parents and the 1963-64 student body officers were installed. The Oregon Tech band set the tenor for the occasion with several numbers.

The Spring Formal dance in the highly decorated campus gymnasium was an appropriate and fitting climax for the special occasion.

Oregon Technical Institute was selected last week to conduct American College Testing Program sessions for high school students or college students from the Southern Oregon - Northern California area who are required to take the tests before entering the college of their choice. The first tests were conducted Thursday morning by Gene Stivers, director of testing services. The official announcement stating that Oregon Tech will be administering ACT tests set the dates of Nov. 9, 1963, and April 25, 1964, as established future dates. The program is being coordinated through Dr. R. H. Mathers, regional director, in Sacramento.

A 19-year-old electronics student at Oregon Tech, who will graduate in June, accepted a position as electronics technician in the research area of a hospital in Portland. He will be working with electronic equipment used in hospital research. Most of the electronic equipment which he will be working with will be used in recording nerve impulses in experimental animals. This area of bionics, or biological-electronics, is a new field for Oregon Tech graduates. Incidentally, the student's starting salary is $500 per month.

Another student, Jim Erickson, a 25-year-old Medical Technology student from Bandon, Oregon, was elected district governor of the Pacific Northwest District of Circle K International. He was elected last weekend at a conference held on the Lower Columbia College campus at Longview, Wash. Erickson will be governor of an international district which includes four divisions. They are Oregon and the California counties adjoining Oregon, eastern Washington and the panhandle of Idaho, western Washington, and British Columbia and Alaska. Erickson will attend Circle K International, Virginia, Aug. 26 to 29, 1963.

Southern Oregon College will present a program to the Oregon

WEATHERMAN BATS 1,000

A.I.C. Thomas J. Presby, weatherman, receives a desk pan set from Maj. William E. Harrell, commander of detachment 2, 35th Weather Squadron, in recognition of his having made 1,000 weather observations without error. Observing the presentation is Col. Edwin J. Wittenburger, commanding officer of Kingsley Field, Presby, 20, of Youngstown, Ohio, has been a member of the Air Force since July, 1960, and assists his squadron in providing weather forecasts to the air field. Major Harrell attested that it was the second time in his military career that he had encountered such an excellent record of observations.

Beaver Boys State Trains Youth In Citizenship Role

Beaver Boys State, an educational program sponsored by The American Legion, provides a plan for training in the functional aspects of citizenship. Its purpose is to teach the youth of today constructive attitudes toward the American form of government.

Held this year from June 23 to June 29, on the Oregon State University campus at Corvallis, the one week session will be attended by 26 boys from this area, each of whom is sponsored by an interested individual or organization. The boys, all juniors in their respective schools, were selected for outstanding character and leadership in their communities. Local chairman of the program is Julian Abbott, American Legion Post No. 8.

Boys attending and their sponsors include: Henley High School: Ray Black, Kingsley Field; Dependent Youth Organizations: John Riggs, Klamath Falls Rotary Club; Dick Johnson, Adair Furniture Company.

Chilquino High School: Tony DiLillo, U.S. National Bank of Chilquino; Rocky Evans, Simplot Devine Lumber Company, Chilquino; Don Taylor, Kircher's Hardware Store, Chilquino.
