Padres Pound Portland Nine. Behind Returned Freese, 12-1

By MICHAEL HUDSON
United Press International

Those league-leading San Diego Padres are tougher than ever now that big George Freese is back in town.

Freese played a big part in bringing the 1960 National League pennant to Cincinnati, but neither the Reds nor he ever really bounced back after he broke his leg in spring training of 1961.

Now the Reds have sent him down to regain his batting eye and in his first game for the Padres Tuesday night he crunched a pair of homers and a double.

Easy Win
He got plenty of help from his mates as the Padres rapped five homers and 20 hits on the way to a 12-1 romp over Portland.

Elsewhere, Dallas - Ft. Worth stayed within a game and a half of the Pads in the southern division with a 6-4 win over Oklahoma City. Tacoma pulled the same distance ahead of Seattle in the northern loop with a 5-3 win. Spokane parlayed a trio of homers into a 7-3 win over Hawaii, and the Salt Lake - Denver game postponed by cold weather.

Freese's heavy hitting accounted for four San Diego runs at Portland, while Rogelio Alvarez drove in five more with round-trippers in the third and eighth innings. Mel Queen's three-run blast in the seventh took care of the rest of the tallies.

Homers accounted for most of the damage at Fort Worth, too. Sandy Valdespino whacked one with two out in the ninth and two aboard to decide it after Cesar Tovar hit a solo shot for the Rangers in the sixth.

Gustil ones
Don Williams got the win in relief while Dave Gustil, who spaced six hits over the first eight innings, found himself the loser after Valdespino connected.

Tacoma was out hit 10-7 by Seattle, but cashed in on four Rainier errors and a nice relief job from John Pregoner. Jim Hart of the Giants and Dalton Jones of the losers each collected three hits.

A pair of roundtrippers by Johnny Werhas and one by Neil Brumley were the difference in lead to a full game by edging Washington 5-4 in 13 innings Tuesday.

The win gave the Beavers a 9-2 record in 6-3 for Oregon.

Oregon State won the game in the top of the 13th inning with the aid of two Washington errors. Frank Peters reached base on an error. He scored when Veedor South singled and outfielder Dick Evans bobbled the ball.

The Beavers and Ducks settle the division race with regular season-ending doubleheaders at Eugene Friday and Corvallis Saturday.
