

OES Officer Is Honored

MALIN — Frances Kalina, grand Adah of Eastern Star, was honored recently when 350 guests attended the reception at the beautifully decorated Malin grade school gymnasium.

"The Sword and Veil United," the emblem of Adah's station, was part of the decorations in the east. On each side of the stage was a large potted white tree, accented with small bouquets of blue violets, the flower of Adah's station. Two thousand daffodils arranged with branches of evergreen completed the picture. The daffodils were donated to the chapter by Ben Knypstra of Elkton.

A dinner preceded the reception, arranged by the members of Prosperity Chapter and served by the Rainbow Assembly.

Helen Ann Ottomian, worthy matron and Ivan Ottomian, worthy patron, entered the chapter room with the officers of Prosperity Chapter.

The invocation was given by Morris Boughner, past grand patron, followed by the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Florence Jaeger, worthy grand matron, Candon, ND Eldon Cone, worthy grand patron, Salem, were given grand honors.

Past grand matrons and patrons included Lorena McNair, Ashland, Carlotta Wiseman, Grants Pass, Mattie Hermann, Seaside, Elsie Olliott, Portland, Ronald Gilson, Lebanon, and Morris Boughner, Medford.

Frances Kalina was escorted, introduced and given a hearty cheer. All 18 grand officers, coming from all parts of the state were present and introduce by Mrs. Kalina.

A quadrille was presented by eight couples of the Square Dance Stars of Portland.

An addendum was presented by the Southern Oregon Association with the presentation of a gift and violet corsage by Ethel Twoby of Satellite Chapter, Brookings, who is grand representative to South Carolina. A delightful addendum was presented by Prosperity Chapter assisted by Malin Rainbow Assembly, depicting the many activities of Mrs. Kalina caring for her family of five; scouting, helping with her husband's hardware business, PTA, worthy matron's year, mother adviser of the Rainbow for Girls, bloodmobile, and finally her station as Grand Adah. This degree ended with a flower garden made up of Rainbow Girls enclosed with a white fence and a presentation by the worthy adviser, pro tem, Loudean Lyon.

Forence Jaeger, worthy grand matron, and Eldon Cone, worthy grand patron, spoke briefly.

Mattie Hermann, spoke for the past grand matrons and Ronald Gilson for the past grand patrons. Helen Stankovich and Leora White, Portland, spoke for the grand committee members and Selma Smith, Portland, for the grand representatives. Vera Williams, worthy matron, Gresham, introduced a group of worthy matrons and Don Shores, worthy patron, Jacksonville, introduced the worthy patrons.

Louis Kalina introduced the grand trailers at which time Ellen Sanders presented a humorous skit. The grand trailers are the spouses of the grand officers and all but one were present.

Mrs. Kalina expressed appreciation to her chapter and to all who had given her honors. She introduced her husband and three sons, other relatives and a group of Adahs from Southern Oregon and Portland.

After the Mizpah benediction, refreshments were served by the past matrons of Prosperity Chapter.

California's official state flower, the golden poppy, can be found blooming in some part of the state on any day of the year.

OES RECEPTION — Frances Kalina, left, Grand Adah of the Grand Assembly of Eastern Star, was honored at a reception recently in Malin. With Mrs. Kalina are Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ottomian, worthy matron and patron of Prosperity Lodge.

Founder's Day Is Observed

The observance of Founder's Day highlighted the luncheon meeting of Alpha Lambda Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, teachers' honorary, held in the Blue Room of the Winema Hotel Saturday, May 11.

In an impressive candlelighting ceremony, tribute was paid the 12 original founders of Delta Kappa Gamma. Following a brief history of achievement for each, lighted tapers were placed in candleholders surrounding a glowing red candle and red rose centerpiece. In charge of the ceremony and serving as narrator was Neil Stewart.

Reports of the state convention held in Salem May 4 and 5 were given by those in attendance. Representing Alpha Lambda Chapter were Dolly Bunch, Goldie Peterson, Wilma Maryin, Anne Overman, Jeannette — Jackson, Lela Thurman, Idamary Kurta and Anne Dolezal. The theme for this year's convention was "Build Bridges Rather Than Walls." Members reported many dynamic and inspirational speakers.

In a special election, Neil Stewart was elected second vice president and Elsie Mock, treasurer, to replace resigning officers.

State President Alice Otis is to be in Klamath Falls July 20 and plans to meet with members of the two local chapters.

Goldie Peterson, parliamentarian, presented gifts of emblematic notes to Dorothy Green, Anne Overman and Helen Roper. Dorothy Green tendered her resignation as president to take a leave of absence from teaching. Anne Overman, treasurer, will be leaving to study for her master's degree at Oregon State University and Helen Roper will soon leave to make her home in Medford.

Tables were attractively decorated with red rose and gold topiary trees, scattered red roses and gold musical notes. A musical staff entwined with red roses

Mrs. Dick Cary, secretary, and Mrs. Jack Holt, treasurer.

Mrs. Nina Blackman, guest speaker, talked on daffodils, their species and planting time to ensure continuous bloom for eight weeks.

TALENTED DANCER — Stephanie Olvera, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cornelius Olvera, demonstrates the 'airborne' quality required in 'grand jete,' which, correctly performed, requires much speed, grace and 'ballon.' A dancer since she was 5 years old, she has made outstanding progress since beginning classical ballet training at 10 years. She will be a featured soloist in the Normadean Dance Studio production at Sacred Heart Academy on Friday and Saturday evenings, May 24 and 25. A senior at KUHS, Stephanie is a Pep Pepper, a member of the Rally Squad and was second runner-up in the Miss Teenage America Klamath Falls contest. She plans to continue her dance training in San Francisco and will attend Southern Oregon College next fall.
