

Maloney Strikes Out Eight Straight; M&M Boys In Business

Cincinnati Hurler Equals Record

By United Press International

Manager Fred Hutchinson and the Cincinnati Reds always said that Jim Maloney's hard stuff would overcome his hard luck.

A 6-foot, 2-inch, 200-pound fireballer from Fresno, Calif., Maloney won nine games for the Reds in 1962 and would have won more except that his teammates developed paralysis of the bat when he appeared on the mound. They didn't score a run for him over the last 20 innings of the '62 season.

Maloney has been getting some runs this season and Tuesday night he didn't need any luck—just a ninth-inning helping hand from Bill Henry—when he equalled the modern major league record by striking out eight straight batters in a 2-0 victory over the Milwaukee Braves.

Jim went on to fan a game-total of 16 Braves—the third highest single-game total in modern baseball history.

Ties Surkont, Podres

Maloney's eight consecutive strikeouts tied the mark previously shared by Max Surkont of the 1953 Braves and Johnny Podres of the 1962 Los Angeles Dodgers.

Bob Feller and Sandy Kousser share the game strikeout record of 18 and Dizzy Dean once struck out 17 batters in a game.

Maloney began his string of strikeouts with the last out in the first inning and ran it to the first out in the fourth before Hank Aaron grounded out. He had allowed only two hits when he walked his third and fourth batters of the game in the ninth and Henry went in to retire the side.

It was Maloney's sixth win against one loss and he has struck out 58 batters in 60 1/3 innings. His powerful performance has helped to compensate for Bob Purkey's slow start due to a sore arm as well as the 1-7 record sported by Joey Jay.

Frank Robinson singled in the first inning and hit a sacrifice fly in the third to drive in both Cincinnati runs. Bob Hendley suffered his third defeat compared to four wins.

Giants Beat Phils

The San Francisco Giants retained first place with a 3-2 decision over the Philadelphia Phillies, the Los Angeles Dodgers downed the New York Mets, 4-2, the Pittsburgh Pirates nipped the Houston Colts, 6-3, and the St. Louis Cardinals shaded the Chicago Cubs, 5-4, in other NL action.

Western, Olsons Win

Western Oil and Olson's Valiants grabbed off opening game victories in the second night of action for the South Suburban Little League.

Western downed the Teamsters, 5-6, with Bob Kuhn getting the pitching win. He was the third Western hurler. He also got a double while mate Randy Moulton had a triple. Sam Larson doubled for the losers.

Olson's downed the Big Y Market, 4-2, behind pitcher Deane Fischer, who also hit a solo home run. There were no extra base hits for the losers. Red Allred was the loser.

Round Up, Kingsley Win

Round Up and Kingsley Field took victories Tuesday night in the opening round of the City Men's Softball League.

Round Up downed Drumstick in a close one, 2-1, with Joe Lindsay throwing a ne at one-hitter. Kingsley downed Market Basket, 5-0, on a fine one-hitter by Lind.

In the American League, the New York Yankees defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 7-4, the Minnesota Twins routed the Boston Red Sox, 8-2, the Baltimore Orioles topped the Detroit Tigers, 4-2, and the Chicago White Sox beat the Washington Senators, 4-3.

Jose Pagan, hitless in 20 previous trips to the plate, homered in the eighth inning to give the Giants' Billy O'Dell his sixth straight win. O'Dell found a worthy rival in rookie Ray Culp, who yielded only four hits and struck out Willie Mays and Willie McCovey three times each, before yielding the decisive blow to Pagan.

Podres Wins Third

Johnny Podres pitched a five-hitter to record his third win behind a seven-hit Dodger attack that included two key doubles by Ron Fairly. The game was enlivened in the eighth when outfielder Tommy Davis and coach Leo Durocher of the Dodgers were ejected from the game for arguing over a play at the plate.

Jim Pagarioni drove in four runs with a single and a three-run homer for the Pirates as Al McBean, who pitched four strong innings of middle-inning relief, increased his record to 4-1. The decisive Pagarioni homer came off relief pitcher Jim Umbricht, who suffered his first loss.

Bill White knocked in three runs with a homer and a single to help the Cardinals' Curt Simmons chalk up victory No. 6. Curt Flood had three hits and Dick Groat and Julian Javier two each in the Cardinals' 10-hit attack.

HE DIDN'T LIKE CALL — Dodger Willie Davis is more than unhappy at umpire Jocko Conlan after being called out at the plate as he tried to score from second. Conlan ejected Davis from the game and then ejected Dodger coach Leo Durocher who took up the complaint. The play did not figure in the outcome of the game as the Dodgers won their seventh in a row by defeating the New York Mets, 4-2. — UPI Telephoto

Snell, Beatty Matched Finally In Mile Run

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Track and field promoters around the world have been trying for two years to get Peter Snell of New Zealand and Jim Beatty of the United States together to run the "miracle mile" race of the century.

But it took Tom Moore, director of the California Relays at the little city of Modesto, Calif., to bring the deal.

The race will be staged Saturday night and in addition to Snell and Beatty, three other sub-four minute milers, Bobby Seaman,

Jim Grelle and Cary Weisiger, will be in the race.

Snell holds the world's record at 3:54.4, and Beatty is the fastest of the other campaigners at 3:56.1.

Small Crow Assured

This could be the race where someone may push the record down around the 3:50 mark—and it will be witnessed by something less than 9,000 fans. That's the seating capacity for the stadium where the relays are held.

So how does Moore go about lining up this attractive card?

"Our income from the sale of seats is only $20,000," says Moore. "But we have a budget for the relays of $35,000. We make up the deficit by having our merchants donate the awards, then purchase advertising in the program and getting on the list of sponsors."

Moore, a world champion hurdler at University of California a quarter of a century ago, offers no special inducement to athletes to compete in his relays. In fact he doesn't spend nearly as much as most of the other big relays.

Homey Atmosphere

"I think many of the athletes like our track," he says. "And maybe they like the homey atmosphere. When we first started the relays 22 years ago, we had a hard time getting competitors to come here."

"But this year we had to turn down such great teams as Kansas, Western Michigan and Missouri because we didn't have the room for them. They wanted to come, but we had to limit the field to the teams with the best times this year."

The relays teams will be from Southern Illinois, Los Angeles Striders, Oregon, Texas Southern, Oregon State, Stanford, California, Southern California, Florida A. & M. Athletic Club and San Jose State. They have the best times in the country.

Expenses Only

The California Relays pays the travel expenses, plus room and board for the athletes. Period. No under-the-table offers. No cash on the barrel-head.

And for this meet it has attracted such men as John Thomas, Gene Johnson, Joe Faust, John Rambo and Otis Burrell—all over the seven-foot mark in the high jump.

In the pole vault it's John Pennel, Ben Morris and many others above the 16-foot mark. Ralph Boston and Barrell Horn are the broad jumpers; Gary Gubner, Dave Steen, Dave Davis, John McGrath and Parry O'Brien are the 60-foot plus shot-putters, etc.

"Our merchants don't mind the deficit," says Moore. "They not only like the world-wide publicity for Modesto, but they enjoy the relays themselves."

Mantle Slams Two To Pace Yankees

By FRED DOWN
UPI Sports Writer

Are M&M back in business? And, if they are, how long will it be before some of those American League "contenders" are out of business?

The questions are enough to give the New York Yankees' rivals the jitters today because it could mean that Ralph Hook's world champions are ready for their long-awaited big push.

Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris have been awfully quiet for $172,000-worth of home run hitters this season and it's no coincidence that the Yankees have made several false starts while other teams shuttled in and out of the AL lead. But Mantle's big bat exploded Tuesday night and the thunder was so loud it apparently managed to wake up Maris, too.

Mantle, the MVP of the 1962 season, who started Tuesday night's game with six homers and a .292 batting average, hit a three-run homer in the first inning and a two-run homer in the fifth in the Yankees' 7-4 victory over the Kansas City Athletics.

Has Respectable Totals

The outburst gave Mantle respectable season totals of eight homers, 20 runs batted in and a .303 average. And then, lo and behold, the long-slumbering Maris woke up with a homer of his own. Sir Roger's season totals still show only five homers, 10 runs batted in and a .239 average but his history is that he follows Mantle off on a "tear."

Jim Bouton went 5-2-3 innings before turning over a 7-3 lead to Steve Hamilton and received credit for his fifth win. The Yankees remained one game behind the Chicago White Sox and Baltimore Orioles, who are tied for first place in the AL.

The White Sox scored their third straight victory when they shaded the Washington Senators, 4-3, the Orioles beat the Detroit Tigers, 4-2, and the Minnesota Twins whipped the Boston Red Sox, 8-2, in other AL games. Los Angeles at Cleveland was rained out.

Strikes Out Sixteen

In the National League, Jim Maloney struck out 16 batters including a record-equaling eight in a row as the Cincinnati Reds beat the Milwaukee Braves, 2-0, the Pittsburgh Pirates beat the Houston

Colts, 6-5, the Los Angeles Dodgers topped the New York Mets, 4-2, and St. Louis edged out the Chicago Cubs, 5-4, and the San Francisco Giants defeated the Philadelphia Phillies, 3-2.

Mike Hershberger singled home the White Sox' first run and contributed a single to a three-run sixth-inning rally that also included singles by Floyd Robinson and Ron Hansen and a double by Joe Cunningham. Relief pitcher Hoyt Wilhelm preserved Johnny Buschard's fourth win despite being tagged for a two-run homer by Don Lock.

Gaines Paces Orioles

Dick Hall struck out Bill Freehan and Dick McAuliffe to end an eighth-inning Tiger threat and enable the Orioles to score their seventh victory in their last eight games. Joe Gaines homered in the second inning and drove in another run with a sacrifice fly to lead Baltimore's seven-hit attack. The win raised Chuck Estrada's record to 3-1.

The Twins routed rookie Dave Morehead with seven runs in the third inning and breezed behind the eight-hit pitching of Jim Perry, who won his second game of the season. Lou Clinton and Dick Stuart homered to produce the Red Sox runs.
