Lakeview High School Presents Year's Awards

At the awards assembly held on May 16, the Girls' Athletic Association of Lakeview High School gave special awards to Judi Sefert as the outstanding senior girl; Janet Taylor, outstanding junior girl; Christine Radford, outstanding sophomore girl; Shirley Hansen, sportsmanship; and to Marcia Metzen, who earned the highest number of points, 270. Each of the girls was presented with a medallion, and Judi Sefert will have her name engraved on a plaque which will remain in the school. These girls were chosen by the majority of the GAA members by secret ballot.

Mrs. Margaret Weir, commercial teacher, presented an award to Shirley Hansen for being the outstanding member of the Pep Club. She also gave awards to Patty Lane and Carol Allen as outstanding students in Typing I.

Robert Shotwell, director of vocal music, awarded pins to all members of the Choralairs because of the excellent grade they received at the solo and ensemble contest. The members of this group are Jean Baughman, Ara Lee Herbert, Kathryn North, Nancy Lantz, Roberta Kratz, Esther Evans, Kathy Plato, Janet Taylor, Bob McGhehey, Bob Hunsaker, Konrad Kratz, Aaron Osborn, Bruce MacKay, Bryan Hopkins, Ken Kudrna, Mike Wiggins and accompanist Janet Faris. Bob McGhehey received a special pin for superior rating of his solo at the contest. Janet Faris was named outstanding chorus member.

Band awards made by John Jordan, director of instrumental music, noted Sandy Meisner as the most improved member for the year, and Janet Faris for the John Phillip Sousa award. Recognized for earning one ratings at the contest were Karen Anderson, Janet Faris, Sheila Jarman, Sandy Meisner and the clarinet quintet consisting of Bernett McClellan, Marie Deming, Mary Stephens, Edris Winward, and Christine Radford.

Band pins were given to Kay Chaffin, Susan Dallas, Marie Deming, Veronica Mawhinney, Marilyn McNeal, Bob McGhehey, Linda Toner, Aaron Osborn and Bryan Hopkins. Guards were awarded to Don Abbott, Sheryl Anderson, Ken Bell, Ray Hopkins, Bob Johnson, Ken Kudrna, Aaron Osborn, Rusty Pilgrim, Christine Radford, Arlene Robnett, Darlene Robnett, Mike Wiggins and Edris Winward.

Don Shanklin, chemistry teacher, awarded the American Chemistry Society award to the outstanding chemistry student of the year, Marilyn McNeal. Student council awards from the National Association of Student Councils were presented by Principal Rex Hunsaker to the student body officers of the past year, Ray Vargas, Ruth Goss, Jean McDonald and Dallas Angele.

Larry Flynn received the George S. Turnbull certificate of yearbook service for his work as editor of the Sagebrush Echo. Nancy Lantz, associate editor, received a similar award. Special recognition was given Dona Evans, Mary Giese, and Sharon Duval for three or four years of service on the yearbook. The Eric W. Allen Certificate of Newspaper Service was awarded to Dan Leahy. Scholastic awards in journalism were made to Jean Snider and Deanna Johnston. Connie Duke, Regina Perkinson and Dallas Angele were cited for work on the Honker Herald by F. S. Chasm, adviser.

Mary Ann Williams and Mike Shipman were cited for art awards by Mrs. Antoinette Radford, instructor. Janice Hammerly and Robert Smerski received special recognition for their work on the life-sized wooden honker mounted in the library.

Ted McKee, track coach, gave varsity letters to Neil Meisner, Fred Baldwin, Fred Williams, Ray Vargas, Bill Hall, John Moran, Ken Kudrna, Richard Drinkwater, Jim Hall, Myron Steward, John Leavitt, Rich McDonald and Greg Tracy.

The Lakeview High School band and chorus presented the "Pops" concert, May 15 in the gymnasium. Some of the selections of the chorus were "Climb Every Mountain," "When the Red Red Robin Comes Bob Bob Bobbin' Along," "Round and Round," "Every Night When the Sun Goes Down," and "Now the Day is Over." Some of the selections played by the entire band were "Titus Overture," "Teddy Bear's Picnic," and "All American Campus."

The band honored the graduating seniors and there were two solos and a quartet accompanied by the band. The solos were presented by Bryan Hopkins, who played "Cabins," and Layne Clifton, "Trumpeter's Lullaby." The quartet, made up of Kay Chaffin, Dona Evans, Janet Faris, and Sandy Meisner, played "Swing Low Sweet Saxes." The music was under the direction of Robert Shotwell and John Jordan.

Future Teachers Association visitation day was held Wednesday, May 15. Students who had attended four club meetings were permitted to participate. Mem-
