

COW BELLE LUNCHEON — The annual spring luncheon of the Klamath County Cow Belles was held May 15 at Reames Country Club with Mrs. William Marshall as chairman assisted by Mrs. Jack Nicol and Mrs. William Cunningham. Delightful decorations of paper roses in yellow and orange shades were used on the tables, in hanging baskets and as an arch behind the head table where this group is seated. Left to right are Mrs. Joe Smith, vice president; Mrs. Earl Smith, Mitchell, Oregon State Cow Belle president; Mrs. James Lane, local president; Mrs. William Gouldin, state vice president, and Mrs. F. C. Cherry, Mitchell, state secretary.

Anniversary Is Observed

LANGELL VALLEY—Mr. and Mrs. Leland Harris were honored May 14, their 40th wedding anniversary, at a buffet supper arranged by members of Mrs. Harris' bridge club.

The couple was married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Harris in Ashland. The Rev. John Miller of the Baptist Church officiated.

A bird cage decorated with sweet peas held a monetary gift to the couple from their friends. Seated at the head table with Mr. and Mrs. Harris were her mother, Mrs. Mae Gale, their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. John Harris, and their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Albert.

Others enjoying the party were Mr. and Mrs. Harold Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Doug Smelcer, Mrs. Mabel Pepple, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bechold, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burnett, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Gift, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Monroe and Mr. and Mrs. Lester Leavitt.

A new spring bonnet was inspired by the white butterfly silhouette headgear worn by some nuns. Simone Mirman, a London milliner, made the winged hat of stiff white organza and nestled sprays of flowers on the crown.
