

Prosperity Lodge Meets

Prosperity Rebekah Lodge met Thursday evening, May 2, in the Odd Fellows Hall with the meeting opened in regular form by Charlette Anderson, noble grand.

Plans for the district convention on June 18 were discussed. Time and place of the banquet will be announced later. Chairman Helen McCracken stated there were 12 members expected from Paisley.

Committee reports were given on the spaghetti dinner on April 27, proceeds of which help with the United Nations Pilgrimage. The noble grand thanked members of all branches of the order for their help in the successful project.

District Deputy Olive Hanna presented Helen McCracken with her seal of perfection on the unwritten work.

During a recess, Edith Ward introduced Kent Calahan, who sang two hymns, accompanied by Georgia Mill.

A Mother's Day skit was given by eight sisters, who escorted their "adopted mothers" for the evening to the center of the floor. There, after a clever reading, each was introduced and presented an orchid corsage.

A surprise tribute and orchid corsage was presented to the noble grand and vice grand. Naomi Fay and Retha Kirby then pinned an orchid on each lodge member.

Participating in the program were Naomi Fay, Retha Kirby, Vera Clemmens, Louetta Schortgen, Pearl Jenkins, Ruth Lawrence, Jaunita Landsten, Georgia Mill, May Phinney, Nellie Burritt, Bernice McCracken, Francesa Munsell, Louise Humphrey, Ramona Hanks, Harriette Estes, Pansy Jackson, Cora Swanson, Edith Ward, Joyce Mill and Mary Wells.

A special meeting of the Rebekah Social Club will be held Monday, May 13, for a potluck no-hostess luncheon in the lodge dining room. At that time, plans will be made for the convention. All Rebekahs are urged to attend.

For the meeting, tables were decorated with spring colors, bowls of red tulips and an orchid tree. Refreshments were served by Harriette Estes, June Des Mares and Nellie Burritt.

At the next meeting, May 16, a memorial program will be presented. Refreshment chairmen will be Ethel and Carl Youngren. All visiting Rebekahs are cordially invited to attend any meeting.
