Honor Given OES Member

The appointment of Mrs. Rosalie Hoback as grand representative of Colorado in Oregon was a surprise announcement at the Crest Chapter No. 139 in Chiloquin May 15.

The certificate of appointment, issued by the worthy grand matron of Colorado upon the recommendation of Mrs. Florence Jaeger, worthy grand matron of Oregon, was presented by Frances Kalina, Grand Adah of the Grand Chapter of Oregon from Malin, representing Mrs. Jaeger.

Josephine Zadina and Lester Hoback, worthy matron and patron, presided in the East.

Distinguished and honored guests, Frances Kalina, Grand Adah, and Virginia Zumbur, credential committee member of Grand Chapter, and Ruth Rodenburger, worthy matron of Tulake Chapter, and Verda Scribner, worthy matron of Manzanita Chapter were introduced and escorted to the East.

Under good of the order, each person was presented with a small paper bag with the inscription, "It's in the bag." Josephine Zadina was congratulated and presented with a gift from a paper bag for her appointment as assistant grand warder at Grand Chapter. Lester Hoback was presented with a gift from another paper bag and congratulated for being invited to be assistant to the grand matron and to be an escort in the flag ceremony at Grand Chapter. Both of these he had to decline due to business.

Grand Adah then invited Mrs. Hoback to the East to assist in the opening of a series of paper bags, the last of which held the surprise announcement.

Mrs. Hoback was worthy matron in 1934. She has actively served the chapter on most all entertainment committees for special occasions for Eastern Star and Rainbow. She is a teacher in the Chiloquin grade school and specializes in using talented pupils for many programs.

The worthy matron and worthy patron were congratulated on a successful year, with membership increased by the following new members: Jeanette Edge and Mary Guse, by affiliation; Neal Guse, Elmer Edge, Irene Fletcher, W. H. Fletcher, Jane Ohlund, Frank Ohlund, Dibben Cook, Esther Cook, Lou Ellen Cook, Delphine Fletcher, Juanita Fried, C. E. Martin, Lorena Martin and Jessie Winkle by initiation.

Money has been raised for a new star point rug and many special and entertaining meetings have been enjoyed during the year.

The worthy matron presented the officers with colorful straw hats as gifts.

A special meeting was announced for May 29.

Jerry Thomas Answers Your Insurance Questions

QUESTION: Some friends of ours had a lot of damage to their ceilings from a terrific rainstorm and I would like to know if there is any kind of insurance that would pay for it?

ANSWER: Not unless the damage was preceded by damage from wind or snow or ice and then it would depend on how their particular insurance policy was written.
