

MOTHER'S DAY PARTY — Pink daisies, blue iris and yellow roses, flanked by gold tapers in crystal holders was the outstanding centerpiece for the Elk's Lodge tea honoring all mothers on their day, May 12. Responsible for the enjoyable affair were these women, left to right, Mrs. Robert Craig, Mrs. J. C. Lemire, Mrs. Jim Murdock and Mrs. Mike Holland. Mrs. Craig and Mrs. Holland presided at the tea services and Mrs. Walter Badorek poured punch.

OFFICERS WIVES — These women are wives of the Elk's Lodge officers who conducted the traditional ritual honoring mothers at the annual Mother's Day tea on May 12. Chairman of the event was Oscar DeNault. In front, left to right, are Mrs. W. E. Carter, Mrs. William Evans and Mrs. Oscar DeNault. In back, same order, Mrs. Walter Badorek, Mrs. Paul Whitman, Mrs. Joe Victor and Mrs. Robert Craig.
