

IT'S STILL SPRING — For springtime menu magic serve a soup 'n' sandwich plate. Try canned condensed split pea soup with ham... bright with green onion and tomato and an open-faced cheese sandwich.

Nuts Ideal Quick Snack

An assortment of nuts makes a welcome snack at any time and is well worth including in shopping plans for a party or that "something special" for after dinner.

Nuts are a perfect food to serve in a hurry when guests drop in unexpectedly. The nutrition and quick energy values they offer also make them ideal for the between-meal snacks with soft drinks that active children like. And there are no untidy leftovers to worry about. Nuts will stay fresh much longer than most people can resist eating them.

These days, shelled mixed nuts are available in cans in almost every food store, ready to eat so that you don't have to struggle with a nut cracker.

And every can opens up a miniature travel adventure in good eating—from the world's largest pecan orchard near El Paso, Tex., through the lush Brazilian jungle and on to Africa and India.

Sandwich Time Plus Soup Bowl

When time is of the essence... spring housecleaning, gardening, etc., to be done... quick meals are in order. Regardless, they must be meals that are well balanced and supply important nutrients.

You can feed your family well and feed them quickly with soup 'n' sandwich menus. It's a favorite combination that fills the bill for lunch or supper; for hearty or party fare. Surveys show that 31 per cent of the time soup is served, a sandwich keeps it company. Proof enough of its great popularity.

Be prepared for this "perfect-for-spring".... and "year-round-too".... type of meal with a well stocked pantry shelf. Choose from 32 different kinds of canned condensed soups; numerous canned or packaged sandwich spreads and fillings; endless varieties of breads and rolls. The possibilities are limitless. With a soup and sandwich meal your menu planning is balanced... time-wise and nutrition-wise.

Our suggestion for "hearty" fare is springtime split pea soup, open-face cheese sandwich, and angel food cake a la mode.

SPRINGTIME SPLIT PEA SOUP
2 tablespoons chopped green onion
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed split pea with ham soup
1 soup can water
1/2 cup chopped fresh tomato

In saucepan, cook onion in butter until tender. Blend in soup and water; add tomato. Heat, stir now and then. Makes 2 to 3 servings.

OPEN-FACE CHEESEWICH
3 slices pumpernickel bread
Mayonnaise
Lettuce
3 slices (about 4 ounces) natural caraway cheese
3 slices (about 4 ounces) Swiss cheese
Dill pickle slices

Spread bread with mayonnaise; cover with lettuce. Top each sandwich with a slice of caraway and Swiss cheese. Garnish with dill pickle. Makes 3 open-face sandwiches.

For party fare serve this soup 'n' sandwich "combo"... tomato chicken duet, egg and watercress sandwiches, and fresh fruit compote.

TOMATO CHICKEN DUET
1/2 cup chopped cucumber
1 tablespoon chopped green onion
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1 can (14 fluid ounces) chicken broth
1 can (10 1/2 ounces) condensed tomato soup
1 cup water

In saucepan, cook cucumber and onion in butter until tender. Stir in chicken broth, tomato soup, and water. Heat, stir now and then. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

EGG AND WATERCRESS SANDWICHES

3 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
2 tablespoons mayonnaise
2 tablespoons chopped watercress
1 tablespoon chopped radish
2 teaspoons minced onion
1/2 teaspoon prepared mustard
Dash pepper
Crisp lettuce
8 slices buttered whole wheat bread

In small bowl, mix eggs, mayonnaise, watercress, radish, onion, mustard, and pepper. Spread about 1/2 cup egg mixture in 4 slices bread; arrange lettuce on top. Cover with additional bread slices. Cut each sandwich into thirds. Makes 4 whole sandwiches.

Grill Hot Dogs

A simple way to barbecue hot dogs (either over charcoal or in the oven) features a foil wrap. Individual packets are made with two frankfurters to a serving. Over the franks goes a zesty wine sauce for unusual flavor. A robust California Burgundy or other red dinner wine will be a complementary choice.

Complete the menu with a hearty potato salad, assorted relishes, crusty bread and glasses of the same red dinner wine used to sauce the franks.

FRANKFURTERS GRILLED IN FOIL

(Makes 4 servings)
6 frankfurters
Foil
1/2 cup Burgundy or other red dinner wine
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
1/4 cup catsup
2 tablespoons pickle relish
4 thin slices lemon

Cut top surface of each frankfurter on the diagonal about three times. Place two frankfurters on each of four squares of foil. Combine wine, mustard, catsup, and pickle relish. Spoon on top of meat; place lemon slice on top of each. Close and seal foil packets. Grill over charcoal (or bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees F.) about 20 minutes.

Do You Know That...

For a gourmet touch at breakfast, serve chocolate cinnamon toast. Mix together 1/2 cup cocoa, five tablespoons melted butter, one teaspoon cinnamon and six tablespoons sugar. Spread on hot crisp toast.

To give a deviled ham sandwich added dash, combine one 2 1/2 ounce can deviled ham with 1/2 ounce cup cottage cheese, one teaspoon minced onion and two teaspoons pickle relish. Extra good on rye bread.

Ice cream sandwiches may be made by putting a generous spoonful of ice cream between two large plain butter cookies. As a dessert, top with additional ice cream and nuts or hot chocolate sauce.

A creamy blend of 1/2 cup chilled buttermilk with 1/2 cup vegetable-tomato juice makes a refreshing beverage—ideal for the dieter and delicious as a sandwich accompaniment.

For easy cheese sticks, quarter six slices of bread lengthwise to make 24 sticks. Place on ungreased cookie sheet. Sprinkle with one cup grated cheddar cheese. Bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees, six to eight minutes or until cheese melts. Serve warm.
