

Nation Remembers Soldier Dead

Klamath Falls Ceremonies Washington, D.C.

"Has Memorial Day lost its significance?" This is the question Judge Donald A. W. Piper posed to the crowd in front of the Klamath County Courthouse Thursday during Memorial Day services at the Memorial Hall.

Judge Piper answered "no" in delivering the main address during the program attended by Klamath Basin citizens, patriotic and veterans groups late this morning.

"Not if in consecrating this day to glorify and honor our military dead we can rekindle an active vibrant patriotism in all our citizens. We must again become actively aware that our freedom is a sacred heritage," Judge Piper emphasized.

Being lately patriotic, rising up only in times of emergency isn't enough, the judge inferred. "What we need is some good old-fashioned active patriotism. Has not the course of our country suffered because the patriotism has been a little too latent? The dead of our wars would be appalled at the situation we're in now in Cuba," Judge Piper said.

"We seem to go to any lengths to accept, at least in modern times, any national affront short of forceful aggression in order to avoid disturbance of our peaceful pursuits. The two world wars and Korea were fought to make the world safe for democracy. We must stand up for democracy now."

"The fact that Memorial Day has seemed to have lost its significance, has become more and more devoid of its religious and patriotic overtones is a matter of concern to present day religious, business, government and patriotic leaders," he said.

Memorial Day still has its significance then, the judge indicated. It gives us a chance to pause in these hurried times and dwell upon the memory of those who gave their lives and typify that higher and truer Americanism which should be active in all of us.

Judge Piper's address climaxed the ceremonies which opened with a bugler calling the crowd to attention and the National Anthem was sung by Curt Feidler with Marie Obenchain at the organ.

Emcee for the program was sports announcer Wayne Scott, KOTV-TV. He read a Memorial Day poem.

Invocation was delivered by the Rev. Eugene Van Beveren.

A firing squad from Kingsley Field rendered a salute to the honored dead and taps were sounded by Fred Floetke and David Johansen.

Memorial wreaths were laid on the shaft by service organizations and individuals and the program closed with a benediction.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy laid a wreath at the foot of the Tomb of the Unknowns today, then paid a sentimental visit to the graveside of James Forrestal, the nation's first secretary of defense.

In brief Memorial Day ceremonies in crisp, sunny weather at Arlington National Cemetery, Kennedy placed a red, white and blue flower wreath at the tomb, which is inscribed with the words: "Here rests in honored glory an American soldier known but to God."

The President then was driven to an isolated area of the national cemetery to visit the plain graveside of Forrestal. Kennedy stood silently before the simple slab marker for several minutes, then left by limousine for the return trip to the White House.

Forrestal became the nation's first defense chief in 1947. He died in 1949 in a fall from his hospital room at the Bethesda (Md.) Naval Hospital.

A 21-gun salute boomed across the rolling hills of the cemetery as Kennedy's limousine drove to the top of the hill to the Tomb of the Unknowns. Military honor guards stood at rigid attention and a lone bugler played taps as Kennedy performed the brief ceremonial function in honor of the nation's war dead.

His son, two-year-old John Jr., accompanied the President on the visit, holding tightly to the hand of a Secret Service agent. Mrs. Kennedy and Caroline did not attend the ceremonies.

Kennedy and his family left shortly before noon by helicopter to spend one day at Camp David.

Also accompanying the President in other helicopters were actor David Niven and his wife, and Ben Bradlee, Washington bureau manager for Newsweek, and Mrs. Bradlee.

Two questions for today:

1. What is Memorial Day?
2. How did it get started?

Memorial Day is a patriotic holiday—a day to honor those members of America's armed forces who have given their lives for their country. Originally, Memorial Day was set aside to honor men who died in the war between the States. Its official observance now includes those who died in the Spanish-American War, in World Wars I and II, and in the Korean War.

Unofficially, it is a day to be devoted lovingly to the memory of everyone's dear departed.

Its origin is an interesting story. Memorial Day originated when Southern women scattered spring flowers, lovingly and tearfully, on the graves of soldiers who died during the War between the States. They honored the Northern dead as well as their own dead.

It was not until 1898 that General John A. Logan, as commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, named May 30 as a special day for honoring the graves of the Union soldiers. The G.A.R. had charge of Memorial Day observance in the Northern states for many years. The American Legion took over this duty after World War I.

During the War between the States, the Union enlisted 2,667,000 men who saw service in the field. The Confederates enlisted a total of about 1,400,000.

On the Union side, 110,000 men were killed in action or died of wounds, and 250,000 died of disease or starvation. The Confederates lost about 75,000 killed or fatally wounded and about 90,000 from disease and starvation.

Which is to say:

Out of a total of approximately 4,000,000 men who saw service in the field on both sides in the War between the States, some 525,000 were killed in action or died of wounds or disease or starvation.

War was deadly business in those days.

Out of the War between the States came two literary gems—of which the first and greatest is Lincoln's Gettysburg Address, which has been read at thousands of Memorial Day observances. On that November day at Gettysburg in 1863, midway of the war, Lincoln said, in part:

"We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that our nation might live. It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground. The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far beyond our power to add or detract. The world will little note, nor long remember, what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here."

Decades later, Walt Mason, a writer of syndicated doggerel verses in current slang, rose to greatness with these four lines that are so vividly descriptive of the Memorial Day observances of that earlier time:

"The little green tents
Where the soldiers sleep
And the sunbeams play and the women weep
Are covered with flowers to-day."

I'm afraid that if the people of that day, when May 30 was still a LIVING Memorial, could see a modern Memorial Day, they would think it sacrilegious. They might be right.
