

KUHS Track, Baseball, Tennis Athletes Honored At Awards Banquet

Klamath Union High spring sports athletes were honored Wednesday night in the school's cafeteria with the annual Sports Banquet.

The baseball, track and tennis teams were the groups honored with six individuals, two in each sport, receiving special awards. Walt Smith and Don Piper, both of the track team, were honored twice.

Smith, who was the only state track champion from Klamath, won the high point trophy with 71 points, the final 20 of which he picked up in the state meet to edge weightman Bill Mills who netted 64 points. Smith also gained the high honor of being named the Most Outstanding member of the track team.

He won the state javelin throw with a heave of 195-3 1/2. However, his best throw of the year, 220-1 1/2, placed him second in the nation, fifth among the all-time best in the nation's high schools and second in the state all-time javelin records.

The second high honor went to Don Piper in track as the Most Improved member. He set a new school record of 1:39.8 in the half mile and was fourth in the district despite being somewhat sick. He also competed in the state meet.

Rich Jackson of the baseball team walked away with the Most Valuable Player award on the baseball team. He was 6-1 for the season in pitching and was beaten only by Medford. He is a junior, as is Smith, and will be back next year.

Dave Johnson, who came on like a runaway Mickey Mantle at the end of the season, was named the Most Improved Player on the baseball team. He had the most extra base hits which included two homers, four triples and a double. He got a .361 batting average out of the late surge.

Larry Tice, another junior, was named the Most Valuable Player on the tennis team. He was the Southern Oregon Conference singles champion and reached the semifinals of the consolation bracket at the state meet. Doug Stiles, another junior, was named the Most Improved Player by Coach Gil Boyd.

Boyd stressed the improvement of the youth on his team. He had only one senior, three juniors and two freshmen on his net team. He also hoped that the Pelicans could make a run for the title next year with Medford.

Bill Mansfield also stressed youth on the baseball team. Of the 21 members of this year's team, only three were seniors. "I feel that we have what it takes to win the league championship next year," he said.

Coach Jack Peterson of the track team said that this was the best year in six for the Pel track team. The overall strength and depth was better and the team set two school records and just missed on several others.

His high point stressed the improved attitude of the athletes and that each helped one another.

The track lettermen were seniors Grover Dahn, Steve Lawrence, Don Piper, Dick Scott, Fred Kelley, Ray Thorne, Bob Holman and John English. The juniors included Smith, Bill Mills, Ernie Badger, Don Graham and Larry Dow. The sophomores had a fine crop of cindermen in Aric and Gerrit DeGroot, Randy Howell, Bud Lummus, Bob Scholl, Terry Eccles and Steve Baker.

The three seniors on the baseball team were Larry Smith, Jim Jackson, and Rich Horn. The junior lettermen were Rich Jackson, Gary Benson, Rich Grow, Ron Yunc, Jay Paxton, Dave Johnson, Verne Petrick, John Gray, Larry Guyer, Marv Yunc, John Parosotto, Rich Bath, Larry Biney, Curtis Coleman and Mike Kitching. Tom Osa was the lone sophomore and Bob Moore the lone freshman. Don Ashenback and Tom Boren were the man-

Rival players like to kid Ed Bailey about his hometown of Strawberry Plains, Tenn. (pop. 400), but the San Francisco Giants' catcher is having the last laugh these days.

Bailey unloaded another important home run with two mates aboard Wednesday night to earn the Giants a 5-4 victory over the Cincinnati Reds.

It was the rugged catcher's 11th homer of the season and fifth in his last six games. It also enabled the Giants to increase their National League lead to 1 1/2 games over the Los Angeles Dodgers, who had to settle for a 3-3 standoff against the Braves at Milwaukee when their game was called in the seventh because of a heavy fog.

Bill White's 10th inning homer gave the St. Louis Cardinals a 2-2 victory over the Houston colts in the only other NL action.

Bailey's latest homer off reliever John Taitouris gave the Giants a 5-1 lead. The Reds made it close when they picked up a single run in the seventh and Marty Keough hit a two-run homer off Juan Marichal in the eighth. Billy Pierce then took over and preserved Marichal's seventh victory.

Braves Chase Dodgers

The fog rolled in at Milwaukee after the Braves had chased Johnny Podres with a three-run barrage in the sixth to tie the score at 3-3. When the fog remained after a 52-minute wait, the game was called and immediately rescheduled as part of a doubleheader, July 21.

White's blow off Houston reliever Don McMahon gave the Cardinals their second straight 10th-inning victory over the Colts.

Woe be to sockless Salt Lake City and hail to springy Spokane as the chouruses most echoed today in the Pacific Coast League.

Lowly Hawaii, undisputed possessor of last place in the Northern Division, spanked its Salt Lake counterpart twice Wednesday 2-1 and 5-4 to plunge the Bees farther into the Southern Division cellar. Salt Lake now has lost 13 in a row, the last eight at home.

Spokane's Joe Moeller white-washed Seattle 5-0 to move the Indians only .001 behind the Rainiers into a deadlock for second place. It was Spokane's fourth win in a row and seventh in eight games.

Pre-season baseball dopsters tabbed Spokane as the team to beat this year in the PCL. However, it has taken the Los Angeles Dodgers farm a while to get warmed up. Now the Indians are out to prove that Seattle is not the only baseball team in the state of Washington.

In other contests, J. W. Porter's two homers carried Denver past San Diego 10-3, circuit smashes by Don Debus and Manny Jimenez propelled Portland to an 8-3 win over Tacoma, and Dallas-Ft. Worth jumped off to a 4-0 lead to edge Oklahoma City 5-4.

Solo homers by Salt Lake's Bill Ott, Lou Holdener and Bill Cowan in the second game were not enough to offset Hawaii's three-run first inning and single tallies in the sixth and eighth.

In the opener, veteran Eli Grba (2-1) of Hawaii limited the Bees to four hits: A double by Carlos Bernier and a single by Bobby Knoop produced both of the Islander runs in the fourth inning.

Spokane's Moeller scattered four Seattle hits in winning his fourth game against three losses. He gave up singles in the first, seventh and eighth innings and a triple to Bobby Gene Smith in the ninth.

The Indians scored four runs in the third off Jerry Stephenson (1-3), who nearly made the pitching staff of the Boston Red Sox this season.

Parnelli Jones To Set Hot Pace For Indianapolis 500 Drivers

INDIANAPOLIS (UPI) — It was the field against Parnelli Jones today for racing's richest jackpot, the 47th annual 500-mile auto race.

Jones, a crew-cut 29-year-old, was the first man to officially turn a magic one-minute lap, 150 m.p.h., on the track and this year in qualifying he set both a one-lap record of 151.847 m.p.h. and a four-lap mark of 151.153.

But his background and his practice performances made him an even greater standout in the field of the 33 fastest qualifiers for this stake race which could split up $500,000 among the starters with as much as $150,000 going to the winner.

Jones also was the fastest qualifier last year when he set the previous speed records and he led the field for half the race before he was forced to slow down because of brake failure.

Fastest On Track

Since his qualifying, he has been the fastest driver on the track, practicing with consistent laps of 149 or 150 m.p.h. to indicate he expected to travel at that pace in the holiday drive-for-pay contest.

Jones, though, can't be an odd-on choice for the struggle expected to last almost 3 1/2 hours. Four former winners were in the

Bo Disqualified By Not Reporting

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Bo Belinsky, the Los Angeles Angels' handsome playboy pitcher, faced new "punishment" today for failing to report to a minor league team, but it might be just what movie-conscious Bo wants.

Fred Haney, general manager of the Angels who has not always been amused by Belinsky, announced Wednesday night he was asking Baseball Commissioner Ford Frick to place Belinsky on the disqualified list as of today, temporarily barring him from professional baseball, for refusing to report to Hawaii.

This step is possible, since major league rules say a player must report within 72 hours after assignment or face disqualification.

The joker so far as Belinsky is concerned is that Bo asked Haney Tuesday whether it would be possible to be placed on the voluntary retired list. Coincidentally or not, Belinsky announced Wednesday he and his attorney were conferring about a possible movie role.

When Haney explained Tuesday Belinsky would have to sit out 90

Betting Says American To Win British Amateur

ST. ANDREWS, Scotland (UPI) — The betting is that an American will win the British Amateur golf championship again this year — and don't be too surprised if his name turns out to be Dr. Edgar Updegraff of Tucson, Ariz.

The 41-year-old doctor came up with the best practice round this far Wednesday over the famed old St. Andrews course, a neat one-under-par 71. He played with 23-year-old Dick Sikes of Springfield, Ark., and they teamed to beat Labron Harris of Stillwater, Okla., and defending British champion Richard Davies of Pebble Beach, Calif., 2 up.

Last week, Updegraff was one of the top players in the United States' come-from-behind victory over Britain in the Walker Cup competition.

Updegraff, playing relaxed and superbly controlled golf in a slight wind and in brilliant sunshine over the famed 6,906-yard course, birdied the par 3, 367-yard fifth and the par 4, 377-yard sixth. His 71 included a five at the 453-yard, par 4 "roadhole"—the 17th—which cost Arnold Palmer the British Open in 1960 when he bogied it five times. Sikes birdied the eighth and ninth holes.

Joining Updegraff, Sikes, Davies and Harris were four other members of the victorious 1963 Walker Cup team—filly Flye Patton of Morganton, N.C.; Downing Gray of Pensacola, Fla.; Bob Gardner of Essex Falls, N.J., and Char-

Ed Cotton Scores KO

SEATTLE (UPI) — Eddie Cotton, Seattle lightweight, sought more action today after scoring a third-round knockout Wednesday night over Honeyman Peterson, Springfield, Ohio, in their scheduled 10-rounder here.

Cotton, who returned to the ring after a long layoff because of a broken hand suffered in a bout with Mauro Mina of Peru, put Peterson away at 2:37 of the third with a withering right to the mid-section. The Seattle fighter weighed 175 while Peterson came in one pound lighter.

limit," says Bobo. "It always drained my strength."

"I'm training today the way I should have when I was the middleweight champion. I work harder and I'm in a better frame of mind."

Olson captured the middleweight crown a decade ago when he whipped Randy Turpin for the vacant crown in New York. Subsequently he trounced the world's best — until Sugar Ray Robinson came out of retirement. Robinson kayoed him twice — and he announced his retirement, a procedure he followed several times in the next few years.

But at 34 (he'll be 35 in July), Bobo thinks he has come further along the comeback trail in a new division than any white man in history.

"And, man," says Bobo, "I need the money. I have eight children — four by my first wife, four by my second. You have to work hard to feed that many mouths."

"And one big pay day with a title shot would be a large help."

Bobo Olson Ranks Third In Middleweight Rating

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — Carl Bobo, who confesses that he made a million dollars as a world middleweight champion — and didn't save a nickel of it — is preparing for what he hopes will be his second crack at fame.

Olson, fresh from triumphs over Jesse Bowdry and Sonny Ray in Honolulu and now the world's third ranking light heavyweight challenger, is lining up a match with Mauro Mina, the No. 1 challenger and South American champion, for San Francisco.

"Mina and his manager will be here next week," says Bobo, "and we hope to work out something for a promotion by Bennie Ford in September."

The winner, says Ford, would get a shot at Harold Johnson's world crown later.

Olson is acting as his own manager these days — lining up all his own bouts and handling his own money.

"I had a manager before, when I was middleweight champ," says Olson. "I think I made around a million dollars. I thought the manager was taking care of my trust fund and taxes. But it didn't work out that way. I wound up broke. I still owe Uncle Sam taxes, but we have an agreement worked out, so I have no problem there."

Olson looks in perfect physical condition at 180 pounds and has no trouble making the 175 pound limit.

"That used to be my problem when I was fighting as a middleweight — making the 160 pound
